From

The Secretary to the Commissioner of Salt, Abkari and Separate Revenue,
MADRAS.

Ref. on G.R. No. 7357 Salt.

For Orders

As to whether the Board's recommendation may be accepted.

It is stated that the person
on whose behalf the application for exemption is submitted, has passed the age at which he can take up book study,
but this cannot be an argument in favour of exemption
if that exemption is required so as to enable the man to be promoted. If it is simply to enable him to retain his post, it is all right. I think we need not raise this point! The man is 51 & near retiring.

READ

Read endorsement of J.H. Merriman Esq., Deputy Commissioner, Central Division, S No. 3423, dated 24th July 1900, submitting, with remarks, an application from M.R. Ry E. Govinda Rao requesting to be exempted from passing certain Departmental Tests.

Reference.

In the application submitted with the letter read above, M.R. Ry. E. Govinda Rao prays for exemption from passing the Salt tests C, D-i, and D-ii and E in a second language, and states that, being 51 years old, he is unfit to study for any examination. As he has passed the age at which he can take up book study for passing examinations, and as he is likely to retire after putting in an additional service of about a year and half, the Board considers it useless to insist on his passing the tests and accordingly recommends that he may be exempted from passing them.
