JULY.

Punishment in Secretariat and other Government offices.

Requesting the Departments of the Secretariat and Heads of Departments to give effect to the decision of the Government of India regarding the forms of punishment to be inflicted on members of the clerical and ministerial establishments in all Secretariat and other Government offices.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

ORDER—No. 724, Public, dated 27th July 1900.

The Government of India has decided that the practice of fining members of the clerical and ministerial establishments in all Secretariat and other Government offices (English and Vernacular) shall, for the future, be abolished. The forms of punishment that can, in the opinion of the Governor-General in Council, be suitably resorted to for the purpose of maintaining discipline among clerical establishments are official reprimand, addition to work, postponement of increment of pay, stoppage of promotion, reduction of existing pay, entry in the service book of references to recorded punishments and censures, suspension, and, in the last resort, dismissal from the service of Government.

2. Departments of the Secretariat and heads of departments will be requested to give effect to the foregoing decision.

3. This order is not intended to apply to the menial establishments.
