Enclosures.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that Mr. R. J. McMahon, Prosecuting Inspector, Madras Railway, Royapuram, may be exempted from certain examinations with a view to his appointment as an Inspector of Police.

2. Mr. McMahon was formerly a 4th grade Inspector in the Mysore Police and was compelled to leave that department on account of ill-health. He is a Eurasian and is the son of Mr. R. McMahon, Superintendent, Revenue Survey, Pudukottah. He has passed the Middle School Examination in the 1st class and the Police Inspector's test of the Mysore Province and is conversant with Tamil and Canarese. Being acquainted with Canarese and having experience as a Police Inspector, he is well suited for an Inspector's appointment in South Canara for which district it is difficult to get any but local men, mostly of one caste.

3. In these circumstances, I request that the Government will be pleased to exempt him from passing the Upper Secondary Examination and the Criminal Lower and Precise-writing tests, as he has already passed through the Mysore Police School.

4. The prescribed form for exemption is enclosed.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedt. servant,

H. Kullab

for Ag. Insp. Genl. of Police.

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the examination rules.

FOR ORDERS.

Application is made for the exemption of Mr. McMahon from
(1) The upper Secondary examination
(2) Criminal judicial test, lower grade
(3) Precise writing test.

Exemption from (2) and (3) is sought on the ground that he has passed through the Mysore police school, but it does not appear that those passing through the Vellore school are similarly exempted and the standard of that school cannot be lower than that of Mysore. But Exemption from (1) may therefore be granted permanent and from (2) & (3) temporarily. All the candidates passing through the school give excellent reasons for the exemption. Orders are also solicited to whether it is necessary to obtain

Order: - no. 381 d/22.8.00
The I. G.'s recommendation are accepted.

Obtain precise information about the circumstances under which Mr. McMahon left the Mysore service.

11/8/00 [The S. G. of Police (who is responsible for the correctness of the statements made by him) says that Mr. McMahon left the Mysore service "on account of ill-health".

2. If the office has any knowledge that this was not the case, a confidential note should be put up, otherwise, I don't understand why the point has been raised. We do not require to know what the cause of his ill-health was.

It is submitted that the office has no such knowledge.
