GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From the Hon'ble Mr. G. H. STUART, M.A., Barrister-at-Law, Director of Public Instruction, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated Madras, 25th July 1900, No. 7332.

Referring to memorandum No. 186, Educational, dated 28th May 1900, I have the honour to submit the following proposals on the subject of the employment of pupils discharged from the Reformatory School, Chingleput, the importance of which is recognized by the Government of India in paragraph 7, clause (3) of Resolution Nos. 374—79, communicated with G.O., No. 664, Educational, dated 29th September 1899.

2. Article V of the Code of rules framed under section 26 (2) of the Reformatory Schools Act of 1897, sanctioned in G.O., No. 599, Educational, dated 26th September 1898, for the working of the Reformatory School, Chingleput, requires that all pupils should be instructed in literary and industrial subjects and that the industry to be taught to each boy should be decided with reference to his tastes and his fitness for any particular trade. Accordingly, during their detention in the school the pupils receive instruction in literary subjects up to the standard of the Primary examination.

Carpentry.
Sawing.
Blacksmith's work.
Tinning (kalloying).
Aluminium work.

Weaving.
Tape-making.
Tailoring.
Gardening.

They are also taught the technical and industrial subjects specified in the margin, with a view to enable them to earn an honest living in their after-life. Considerable attention is also paid to the physical education of the pupils, and the training they receive in drill and gymnastics is such as to render them eligible for enlistment in the Army or for employment as gymnastic instructors in schools.

3. Of the 284 pupils discharged since the establishment of the school, favourable reports have been received about 212 pupils as per details in the margin. Excluding those who have emigrated (5) and those who are dead (6), only 56 or 20 per cent. of the 273 ex-pupils pursue the trades they learnt in the school, eleven are schoolmasters, five are gymnastic instructors and 20 are soldiers in the Madras Army. A large majority of the remaining number of discharged pupils are earning such a precarious livelihood that there is great danger of their relapsing into their old ways. With a view to minimize the difficulties that discharged pupils experience in finding employments, a circular was issued in 1893 to the inspecting officers requiring them to apply to the Superintendent of the Reformatory School for the services of ex-pupils on the occurrence of vacancies in inferior appointments in their offices—vide copy of Proceedings, No. 6389, dated 10th June 1893, enclosed. As the training given in the school fits the pupils for appointments in other departments also as peons, attenders, vernacular clerks, maistries, lascars, process servers, &c., and under railway companies as carpenters, blacksmiths, cleaners, firemen, gang maistries, gangmen, &c., I have the honour to suggest that Government will be pleased to request heads of other departments to employ, in consultation with the Superintendent, former pupils of the Reformatory School in appointments of the kind referred to above.

ENCLOSURE.

Proceedings of the Director of Public Instruction, dated 10th June 1893, No. 6389.

With the concurrence of Government, the Director resolves to suggest that, on the occurrence of a vacancy in inferior appointments in the offices of Inspectors and Inspectresses of Girls' Schools and Assistant and Sub-Assistant Inspectors of Schools, application should be made to the Superintendent of the Reformatory School, Chingleput, with a view to ascertain whether any of the former pupils of the school can be recommended for the post. The general education and the industrial training received by the pupils of this school fit them for appointments like those referred to, and it is the duty of this department to help them, as far as possible, to earn a living.

2. Information should be furnished in the annual reports on the school as to the number of applications received every year from the inspecting officers with reference to this proceedings and the number complied with.

Director of Public Instruction.

ORDER—No. 388, Educational, dated 24th August 1900.

The Government approves of the suggestion of the Director of Public Instruction in regard to the employment of the discharged pupils of the Reformatory School, and all heads of departments will be requested to coöperate in this matter.

2. The Director of Public Instruction should circulate a list of qualified pupils, with remarks as to their attainments and conduct, yearly to all departments of Government with a recommendation that the pupils should be employed in suitable posts as opportunities may occur.

3. The Government is inclined to believe that, with the coöperation of the agents or managers, the railways might be found to afford a large field for the employment of boys who have received a training on the lines indicated in the Director's letter of the 25th July 1900, and His Excellency the Governor in Council will view with satisfaction offers from railway administrations to employ ex-pupils of the school. The Superintendent of the Reformatory School should place himself in communication with the agents and managers of railways with a view to endeavour to enlist their interest.

4. A copy of these proceedings will be forwarded in the Political department to the Resident in Mysore.

Perhaps Col. Robertson might interest himself in the matter & communicate the order to influential persons on the mines.
As regards, regiments, the pupils are already in some demand, it is understood. A copy of the order will be sent to the military authorities.

The Sift asked to the day for an Army list to be supplied to him. As he often wished to comm. with Cols of Regiments about recruiting boys - so he probably takes his own measures in the respect.
