NOTE FOR THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY.

Col. 6 of the application has not been filled in and it is, therefore, not known what steps have been taken to secure a passed candidate. In a similar application for exemption, received from Bellamy, however, it is stated (Ans. 1125) that for 19 vacancies, there were only two applicants. One of these was appointed, but resigned when ordered out to camp, and the other was ascertained to be a bad character. The exemption applied for may therefore be granted, at least up to the end of the current year.

We may extend up to end of fiscal year June 1901 as proposed?
