THE HON'BLE MR. G. H. STUART, M.A., Barrister-at-Law,

DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,

Madras,

To

THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

Educational DEPARTMENT,

Fort St. George.

SIR,

J In reply to paragraph 6 of G.O.No 259, Educational dated 29th June 1900, I have the honour to state that complaints were received last year from some of the Public Works officers to the effect that certain students of the College of Engineering undergoing their practical course, were found deficient in their knowledge of practical Surveying, and that consequently, the Chief Engineer had to issue instructions for their being specially exercised in that subject before the practical training was over. In this connection the Principal, College of Engineering writes as follows:-

"X X X. I have the honour to express the opinion that the complaints referred to by the Chief Engineer would not arise if all students of the Engineer, Engineer Subordinate, and Suboverseer and Surveyor classes were required to satisfy the Principal in regard to their abilities in practical surveying, before they are allowed to pass out.

4. For several years past, a practical examination in Surveying has been held in November at which the students of each division of the above classes have to appear. The marks awarded form a substantial proportion of those allotted by the College at the term and final examinations under the head "Surveying". A student failing in practical work is required after an interval to appear a second and if necessary a third time, but marks are given on the first occasion only. It is not always possible however to secure the re-examination of a final-year student; and as the total loss of marks for practical surveying does not necessitate a candidate's failure at the final examination, I recommend that no student of the Engineer or Engineer Subordinate class be allowed to proceed to the practical course and no student of the Suboverseer and Surveyor class to be notified in the Gazette as having passed the final examination, until the College requirements have been satisfied."

2. The Principal has since adopted my suggestion that the course which he proposes with regard to the Suboverseer and Surveyor class should also be followed with regard to the Engineer and Engineer Subordinate classes, as it is not desirable that students of either of these classes should be declared to have passed the final examination when they are ignorant of practical Surveying.
3. The necessary draft notification shewing the changes which I propose to introduce in Article V of the Rules of the College of Engineering, is submitted for the approval of Government and for publication in the Gazette.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

G. H. Stuart
Director of Public Instruction.
