NOTE FOR THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY.

orders have now to be passed on para 6 of the Director's letter $\frac{C}{12}$ dt 20th July 1900 in S.P. 40349 dt 8th.

A. August 1900. In that paragraph the director proposes that Mr. Chatterton may be placed in charge of the school of arts.

A reply is due to the letter from the Govt of India in G.O. no 174 dt 10th April 1900 about Mr. Chatterton's position in relation to the Principal of the school.

20/8/00

The paragraph was rather a statement of ~~what~~ what is the outline of the direct plan than something for definite orders.

2. Know that it is settled
Mr Porterfield is to go, & he has elected to take six months notice, it is proposed to call on the Director for a definite statement of his proposals, with the usual proposition ~~Waterside~~ farms.

3. If the suggestions which are sketched in the sketch in question are approved in general terms Mr Stuart will have no difficulty in drawing up a regular scheme & in the meantime the sketch of the paragraph may be commd to the G. of S. with the remark that preliminary statements will follow before, say, the 1st Nov^r next.

Mr Stuart's remarks as to the artistic powers of the native Superintendent are, it is thought, very interesting; it would be a great thing if Madras could produce a first-rate native art-teacher who in addition to his own artistic capabilities had had such excellent tuition as Mr Havell was able

But we wait, I think, until we have Mr Stuart's definite proposal. The Govt of India will not hurry how they know the matter is being attended to.

Submitted that Mr Stuart may now be asked to make definite proposals at a very early date for as to the arrangements to be made as regards the school. Mr Porterfield will go in six months time and presumably Mr Chatterton will be proposed as H^o of the school after that date.
