EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From R. NATHAN, Esq., Under Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Medical), to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department, dated Calcutta, 24th January 1900, No. 143.

In continuation of the letter from this department, No. 1892, dated the 13th November 1899, I am directed to forward, for the information of the Governor in Council, a copy of the correspondence with Her Majesty's Secretary of State, noted in the margin, regarding the grant of an allowance of Rs. 200 a month to Captain Giffard, I.M.S., for lecturing on Pathology at the Medical College, Madras, from the date of his transfer to the medical charge of the 2nd District up to the end of December 1898.

ENCLOSURES.

Despatch from His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India in Council, to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, dated Simla, the 26th October 1899, No. 379.

We have the honour to forward, for Your Lordship's consideration, a copy of the correspondence noted in the annexed list, regarding the proposed grant to Captain Giffard, I.M.S., formerly Resident Surgeon, General Hospital, and Professor of Pathology, Medical College, Madras, of an allowance of Rs. 200 a month for lecturing on Pathology after his transfer to the medical charge of the 2nd District.

2. On the transfer of Captain Giffard to the charge of the 2nd District, his place was taken at the hospital by Dr. Rendle, one of the medical practitioners sent from England in consequence of the plague, on a salary of Rs. 500 a month. The Government of Madras did not consider it desirable to entrust the duty of lecturing on Pathology to Dr. Rendle, and Captain Giffard therefore continued to lecture in addition to performing the duties of Medical Officer in charge of the 2nd District. The Government of Madras propose to grant Captain Giffard an allowance of Rs. 200 a month from the date of his transfer to the 2nd District up to the end of December when the autumn session of the college terminated. We recommend this proposal for Your Lordship's sanction.

Despatch from the Right Hon'ble Lord GEORGE HAMILTON, Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India in Council, dated India Office, London, 21st December 1899, No. 171, Public.

Having considered in Council Your Government's Financial letter, No. 379, dated 26th October last, I sanction the proposed grant of Rs. 200 a month to Captain Giffard, I.M.S., for lecturing on Pathology at the Medical College, Madras, from the date of his transfer to the medical charge of the 2nd District up to the end of December 1898.

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE LORD GEORGE FRANCIS HAMILTON,
Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India.

Simla, the 26th October 1899.

MY LORD,

WE have the honour to forward, for Your Lordship's consideration, a copy of the correspondence noted in the annexed list, regarding the proposed grant to Captain Giffard, I.M.S., formerly Resident Surgeon, General Hospital, and Professor of Pathology, Medical College, Madras, of an allowance of Rs. 200 a month for lecturing on Pathology after his transfer to the medical charge of the Second District.

2. On the transfer of Captain Giffard to the charge of the Second District, his place was taken at the Hospital by Dr. Rendle, one of the medical practitioners sent from England in consequence of the plague, on a salary of Rs. 500 a month. The Government of Madras did not consider it desirable to entrust the duty of lecturing on Pathology to Dr. Rendle, and Captain Giffard therefore continued to lecture in addition to performing the duties of Medical Officer in charge of the Second District. The Government of Madras propose to grant Captain Giffard an allowance of Rs. 200 a month from the date of his transfer to the Second District up to the end of December when the autumn session of the College terminated. We recommend this proposal for Your Lordship's sanction.

We have the honour to be,
