CURRENT NO. 1232

His Excellency Sir Arthur E. B. C. S. E.

Governor of Madras.

Respectfully Sheweth.

That your Excellency's petitioner respectfully begs leave to approach your Excellency with the following prayer and pray that your Excellency will add to your former benevolence by acceding to this price of his last request.

1. That upon the representations of your Excellency's poor petitioner's circumstances and upon the recommendation of the late Paymaster (Capt R. F. Lomby) to whom his case was referred for inquiry & report, the benign Govt was pleased to exempt your Excellency's petitioner from passing the Upper Secondary examination & that such exemption of his was restricted to Salt Department alone.

2. That when the late Paymaster had come in person and enquired as to the truth of my statement contained in my last petition your Excellency's petitioner had informed that officer that exemption was sought for with a view to enter into the Salt or the Police department. The Paymaster must have not noticed the mention of the Police department & acc Government Confined his exemption to Salt department.

Your Excellency's petitioner begs leave to state that recently he had an occasion of seeing the Inspector-General of Police which officer expressed his regret as being unable to take me in his department as Govt has restricted my exemption only to the Salt department, and added that he would leave no objection to give me a footing in his department if Government would be pleased to extend my exemption to the Police department also as your Excellency's petitioner is qualified for Inspector post in every other way.

Your Excellency's petitioner is for the present quite destitute and has no one to look to for support, in such a critical time. Being possessed of necessary qualifications he is starving night and day.

5.

Under these circumstances your Excellency's petitioner prays that your Excellency may be pleased to extend his exemption to the Police department also and that he may be exempted from passing the Precise Writing Test to enable him to seek out his own livelihood & to maintain & ascertain the degree the reputation of his ancestors who were once the rulers of this place where a hiss of them is craving for bread.

6.

It will not be out of place to add that wholesale exemptions were granted to the sons of

as Santhandak in

Governor of Madras

Respectfully Sheweth

That your Excellency's poor petitioner waits for the reply of his humble petition forwarded to your Excellency on the 6th of July 1900, and at the same time hopes for the favourable reply from your Excellency.

1. That your Excellency's poor petitioner most humbly prays that he had the honor of an interview with H. A. Stuart Esq. Inspector-General of Police who promised him to entertain your humble petition in his Department & to send him for training to Vellore School in the month of October if he be exempted from passing the Precise-Whiting Test and if exemption be extended to the Police Department for which your Excellency's poor petitioner fits in every way for the Inspector's post.

At your humble

so lose the honour + dignity of his forefathers who had been the rulers of this place.

3. Therefore your humble petitioner throws himself upon your Excellency's Clemency
and most humbly begs to grant him his request
so that he may maintain his forefathers' name
and do out his own livelihood for himself
+ his family consisting of 7 helpless souls.

Soliciting for a favour

Most Respectfully Sheweth.

That your Excellency's humble petitioner waits for the reply of his humble petition, forwarded to your Excellency, on the 6th of July 1900, & at the same time prays for the favourable reply from your Excellency.

That your Excellency's petitioner, has clearly stated every thing, in his petition dated the 6th July, as well as in his 1st remainder dated the 23rd July 1900. He had the misfortune of not able to be brought up, to a higher education for want of proper means, though, yet your Excellency's petitioner is in every way fit for the Police department.
His great desire in securing a high appointment in the

of the great family, of the Nawab of Carnatic.

2. That your Excellency's petitioner begs leave to approach your Excellency, with his following prayer and pray that your Excellency will add to your former benevolence, shown in his last piece of request, with a view to get him exempted from passing the Prece-writing test & to extend his exemption to the Police-department, where, he strongly hopes, to get a footing of Inspector in the aforesaid department, as your Excellency's petition is in every way qualified for the said post.

3. That your Excellency's petitioner further begs to add, that wholesale exemptions were granted to the sons of the Mahajidars of Arcotundah who have every protection of their parents, whereas your Excellency's petitioner is quite left destitute.

4. Considering these circumstances your Excellency's petitioner, most respectfully & humbly prays, that he may not be disappointed from your Excellency's door, for his aforesaid request, & at the same time humbly prays, that your Excellency's petitioner, being well convinced of your Excellency's great goodness, has presumed to approach your Excellency in this manner, earnestly praying that your Excellency will deign to look with compassion on your Excellency's poor petitioner distressed circumstances, & brought up in the path of virtue.

For which act of charity & great goodness.
Your petitioner is in duty bound.

Shall ever pray
In the name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

requests that he may also be allowed to apply for employment in the police departt. and exempt from the precis-writing test. The exemption granted to him may perhaps be extended to the police departt., but it does not appear that any further concession is for.
