SIR,

One Chinna^{swamy}, an unpassed candidate, was being entertained as an acting Taluk peon from before 1890 and was appointed in that year as a permanent Taluk peon in the place of one who was dismissed from service. The dismissed peon having been restored, on appeal, to his original appointment, Chinna^{swamy} was ousted from the post given to him. Subsequently in 1892, this man was provided with a permanent place of sweeper in the Dharmapuri Taluk office. Ever since he has been a permanent sweeper, now and then acting as Taluk peon as vacancies in that grade occurred. On my recommendation, the Board of Revenue was pleased in Board's Proceedings No.266, Routine, dated 3rd February 1900, to grant this man exemption from examination rules for one year for being appointed as an acting Taluk peon of the Dharmapuri Taluk office. This exemption expires with the 8th February 1901, and the vacancy in which the peon acts now is a permanent one. He is stated to be a very useful and satisfactory servant. If he had been confirmed as a peon prior to 1st January 1897, he, like other unpassed men, would not have been affected by the introduction of the rules contained in the Public Service Notification. By the mere accident of his not being so confirmed, he has been put to a disadvantage, although he has acted as peon, on several occasions. As the man's case is a hard one, I have the honour to request that he may be permanently permanently exempted from the examination rules.
