Thro'

The Hon'ble Mr. P. Rajaratna Mudaliyar,

Dewan Bahadur, C.I.E.,

Inspector-General of Registration,

MADRAS

The humble petition of Abdul Karim, Clerk, Office of Inspector-General of Registration, Madras.

Humbly Showeth,

That the petitioner passed the Matricula-tion Examination in 1894 and prosecuted his studies for the First Examination in Arts, but having failed to get through the F. A. Examination in 1896, he made a second attempt in 1897 with a like result. Being thus twice baffled in his attempt to pass the F.A. Examination, he was forced by circumstances to give up his studies and seek employment, as is --- generally the case with persons who, like himself, have hardly any means to support themselves and much less to enable them to prosecute their studies.

2. That the petitioner in consequence appeared for and passed the Hand-writing test, and in 1898 entered Government service as a clerk on Rs.17/8/0 in the office of the Superintendent of Stationery, Madras, and discharged his duties to the entire satisfaction of the Superintendent, as testified to by the certificate herein enclosed. In May 1899, the Hon'ble Mr. P. Rajaratna Mudaliyar Avergal, Dewan Bahadur, C.I.E., was pleased to take the petitioner into his office on promotion. He is now drawing Rs.50 per mensem.

5. That the petitioner respectfully begs to submit that though he has passed the Matriculation Examination and the Hand-writing test, he cannot hope to improve his position in service without passing the Criminal and Revenue tests ; and as, under the existing rules, none but F.As. and graduates are allowed to appear for these tests, the petitioner therefore prays that your Excellency will, in consideration of his present qualifications and of the backward nature of the Community to which he belongs, be graciously pleased to exempt him from the operation of the examination rules and permit him to appear for all the Special tests examinations.

For which act of justice and mercy the petitioner will, as in duty bound, ever pray.

Abdul Karim

(Signed) Herbert Bradley, Ag. Superintendent of Stationery.

Abdul Karim was employed as a temporary clerk in the Public Works Secretariat for a period of four months, and during this time worked with diligence and promptitude and gave entire satisfaction. He was regular and punctual in his attendance at office and writes also a neat hand. He also understands type-writing and the telephone.

Under Secretary to Government.

Presidency College,
Madras, February 15, 1898.

Abdul Karim was a student in the Presidency College in the F.A. Class during the years 1895, 96 and 97 and read under me for two years. I found him very intelligent and combined with intelligence he possesses a great amount of industry. I have much pleasure in testifying to his high personal character. His gentlemanly manners and his trustworthiness will, I have no doubt, be appreciated by his superiors in whatever capacity he may be employed.

(Signed) S. Sathianadhan M.A., L.L.M.
(Cantab).
Professor of Philosophy.

I have much pleasure to certify that I have known Abdul Karim for the last two years. He is very intelligent & (industrious

industrious, and his conduct and behavior are very satisfactory.

As he cannot continue his College study, he seeks some employment, and I am quite confident that he will satisfy his superiors in any post to which he may be employed.

Presidency College,
15th February 1898.

Abdul Karim is known to me for the last ten years. I taught him Hindustani during the years 1895, 96 and 1897 in the Presidency College. I found to be painstaking and capable of hard work. His conduct has always been satisfactory.

I am sure that he will give satisfaction to his superiors by discharging the works entrusted to him in any office. I shall be very glad to hear of his getting employment.

Professor of Arabic, Persian & Hindustani.

NOTE FOR THE ASSISTANT

Abd-ul-Karim, a clerk in the office of the Inspector-General of Registration, applies for permission to appear for the Criminal and revenue tests. He is only a matriculate and as such cannot go up for these tests. Vide notes (1) and (2) of Article 4 of the special test notification.

2. The Inspector-General submits the application for favourable consideration and says that Abd-ul-Karim is a well-behaved hardworking young man.

3. Permission to appear for the special tests is however granted only in rare cases and generally the Revenue department is consulted in the matter. Submitted that the present application may be referred to them for remarks.

Submitted that in the present instance the R.T.O.

indv
tion of granting an exemption is entirely at the discretion of

See Office: but as far as the Rev aspect of the question is concerned, there seems to be no objection to the grant of the permission sought by this young Mahammedan.

The objection in this dept to a relaxation of the rules is that it opens the way to persons of ~~poor~~ inferior general education. The rules fix the standard at the F.A., & we shd not go below it. Of course there may be very exceptional cases. I doubt if this can be regarded as one. If the rule is relaxed, we shd be flooded with similar appeals. In orders.
