READ—also the following paper:—

From the Hon'ble Mr. G. H. STUART, M.A., Barrister-at-law, Director of Public Instruction, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated Madras, 6th November 1900, No. 11033.

With reference to G.O., No. 440, Educational, dated 16th June 1894, I have the honour to state that the sum of Rs. 2,700 bequeathed by the late M.R.Ry. B. Krishna Aiyar with instructions to utilize the interest thereon for the spread of education among Hindu caste women was paid into the South Arcot treasury on the 30th July 1898, and the Accountant-General has been requested to invest it in the $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. loan. The executors of M.R.Ry. B. Krishna Aiyar's estate have been managing a girls' school, designated "B. Krishna Aiyar's girls' school, Pudupalayam, Cuddalore", from the 26th September 1894. It works up to the third standard, has been duly inspected by the inspecting officers and is to be raised to the upper primary grade if funds permit.

2. The manager now requests that the interest on the endowment of Rs. 2,700 referred to above may be paid to him as he has to meet certain urgent charges. I beg to recommend that the Accountant-General may be authorized accordingly, and that the Inspectress of girls' schools, southern circle, and the Collector of South Arcot, who has given his consent thereto, be appointed trustees of the endowment under article 173 of the Civil Account Code.

ORDER—No. 592, Educational, dated 22nd November 1900.

The Inspectress of girls' schools, southern circle, and the Collector of South Arcot will be appointed trustees of B. Krishna Aiyar's endowment for the spread of education among Hindu caste women.
