Sir,

I am directed to request that you will be so good as to state for the information of this Government whether youthful offenders convicted under Sections 302, 376 and 377 of the Indian Penal Code are admitted to Reformatory Schools in the Madras Presidency and to forward a copy of the rules, if any, bearing on the subject..

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

C. No. 1474 of 1900.

SUBJECT.

Admission of youthful offenders into the Reformatory School.

FOR ORDERS.

In the current read above, the Govt. of Bombay ask whether youthful offenders convicted under Sections 302 (murder), 376 (rape) and 377 (unnatural offence) of the Indian Penal Code are admitted into the reformatory school in this presidency.

2. Under the Reformatory Schools Act of 1897 youthful offenders who are sentenced to either transportation or imprisonment can be sent to reformatory schools, irrespective of the nature of the offences committed. The reports of the Chingleput School for 1898 and 1899 also show that youthful offenders convicted under Section 302 (murder) are as a matter of fact sent to that institution. There has not been any case of admission for an offence under S. 376 or S. 377 in the past six years, but there seems to be no doubt that boys convicted of any such offence can be sent to the school. The question put by the

the goal of Bombay may therefore be answered in the affirmative.

3. A copy of the revised rules sanctioned in G.O. no. 599 Est. of 26th September 1898 may be also forwarded to that Govt, as requested.

I think so; but in the case of a boy who had been convicted under § 377 it is possible that special precautions against his contaminating others in the reformatory are taken, & if so, we might state them.

No boy convicted of an unnatural offense under Sect. 377. I.P.C. has ever been admitted into the Ref.^y Sch. Chingleput. The Committee on Refy Schools appointed under GO no $\frac{320 \text{ Tsd.}}{5.5.82}$ made the following suggestion, among others. "No boy should be sent to a Reformatory who has been convicted of an unnatural offence, or of gross indecency indicative of habitual immorality". This was approved by Govt in G.O. No 225 Ind.

For the As

It is regretted that the S^d. of 1892 quoted by the S^d. was overlooked. The Bombay Gov^t may now be furnished with a copy of the reformatory rules as amended up to date and be informed that youthful offenders convicted under sections 376 & 377 of the I. P. C. are not admitted into the school at Chingleput. Magistrates & Judges having been generally advised that the most proper subjects for reformatory treatment are those boys who are without proper parental or other control and who have committed an offence or offences against property and that no boy should be sent who has been convicted of an unnatural offence or of gross indecency indicative of habitual immorality - vide S^d. no 225 Judl dy 30-2-92.
