GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From the Hon'ble Mr. G. H. STUART, M.A., Barrister-at-Law, Director of Public Instruction, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated 7th November 1900, No. 11070.

I have the honour to submit a copy of a letter from Mr. Reynolds, Director of the municipal technical school, Princess street, Manchester, suggesting the desirability of allowing Mr. Coombes to remain for the full term of the session which goes on to the end of July next year. Mr. Coombes' deputation to England was sanctioned in G.O., No. 149, Educational, dated 5th March 1898, and an extension of eight months was recommended in this office letter No. 2222, dated 3rd March 1900, with which your endorsement No. 83, dated 23rd February 1900, was returned. I beg to recommend a further extension till 1st October next.

2. Mr. Coombes attended the Paris Exhibition, and a special allowance was recommended by Dr. Duncan in this office letter No. 12937, dated 20th November 1899, with which your endorsement No. 509, Educational, dated 4th idem, was returned. The special duty he was put on at the exhibition deprived him of his holidays during the current year, and he therefore requests that he may be allowed to stay in England six weeks after the close of the session in July next year. This period and the voyage back to India I have taken into account in recommending a further extension of his deputation till 1st October 1901.

3. He further requests that he may be allowed a grant of £5 to enable him to purchase sets of lantern slides to illustrate the principles of design and the history of the textile industry. I have asked Mr. Chatterton for his opinion as to whether the slides are likely to be useful, and on receipt of his reply I shall submit my recommendation regarding the grant.

ENCLOSURE.

From J. H. REYNOLDS, Esq., Director, Municipal Technical School, Princess Street, Manchester, to the Director of Public Instruction, Madras, India, dated 28th September 1900.

Mr. Coombes, who has been a most attentive and diligent student here under your auspices, has entered again for the ensuing session. Our session goes on to the end of July next year, and I would venture to suggest the desirability of his remaining for the full term of the session. He will, without question, greatly benefit by the opportunity.

ORDER—No. 630, Educational, dated 6th December 1900.

The further extension of the period of Mr. Coombes' deputation to England requires the sanction of the Secretary of State, who will now be addressed on the subject.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 630, EDUCATIONAL, DATED
6TH DECEMBER 1900.

[SUBJECT.—Mr. Coombes' Deputation to England.]

For orders as to whether the further extension applied for may be granted, and, if so, whether it is not necessary to communicate with the Secretary of State on the subject. The original deputation was sanctioned by His Lordship in his despatch printed in G.O., No. 399, Educational, dated 5th July 1898, and the first extension of eight months was obtained through him—vide this Government's despatch No. 2, Educational, dated 15th March 1900. The second extension now applied for therefore seems to require his sanction. He may be requested to grant it and cause intimation to be given to Mr. Coombes, if satisfied that it is necessary.

GOVERNMENT OF FORT ST. GEORGE

EDUCATIONAL (1900) DEPARTMENT.

Letter to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India.

Dated 13th December,
No. 5 of 1900.

Requesting that the term of Mr. J. W. Coombes' deputation to England may be further extended to the end of September 1901.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

LETTER—to

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR INDIA.

MY LORD,

In our letter No. 2, Educational, dated 15th March 1900, we recommended to your Lordship's consideration a request made by Mr. J. W. Coombes that the period of his deputation to England, which was sanctioned in despatch No. 2, Public (Educational), dated 26th May 1898, might be extended by eight months so as to enable him to complete a course of weaving at Manchester and certain of the subjects in the Art examination. This recommendation appears to have been accepted by your Lordship, and Mr. Coombes has accordingly entered for the ensuing session of the municipal technical school in Manchester. The desirability of his remaining for the full term of the session to the end of July next year has now been suggested to the Director of Public Instruction. By his recent stay in Paris, under your Lordship's permission, for the purpose of studying the results of applied art at the Exhibition and in the schools and studios of that city, Mr. Coombes has been deprived of his holidays during the current year, and he has therefore requested that, in case the foregoing suggestion is approved, he may be allowed to stay in England for six weeks after the close of the session.

2. We see no objection to the term of deputation being further extended to the end of September 1901. If your Lordship agree with us we request that such extension may be granted and the fact intimated to Mr. Coombes.

We have the honour to be,

My Lord,

Your Lordship's most obedient, humble servants,

(Signed) A. E. HAVELOCK.
