To

The Chief Secretary to Government,

Judicial Department.

Madras.

Sir,

From Government order

dated 6th September 1897, No. 2041 Judicial, it appears that the District Judge of Chingleput and some other officials are ex officio committee members for the Reformatory School here, appointed under section 12 of the old Act (No. V of 1876). I am not aware of any subsequent order removing the District Judge from such membership, and I am informed that no such order has been communicated to this Court.

2. Soon after my arrival here, that is, in August last, I received a communication from the Superintendent of the School, asking me, under instructions instructions from the Director of Public Instruction, whether I was willing to serve as a member of the Committee of Visitors for the School under section 17 (1) of the new Act (VIII of 1897). I replied in the affirmative to this communication on the same day, but have not heard anything further in the matter. In the above communication it was stated that my predecessor ceased to be a member of the Committee, as he failed to visit the School and assist at the duties of the Committee for six consecutive months.

3. I request that I may be informed whether I am or am not an "ex officio" member of the Committee. Under the Government Order first quoted it would appear that I am, but under the Superintendent's invitation, at the instance of
