NOTE FOR THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY.

The Public Works Department may be informed that a man who has passed only the account test (entrance examination) will not be eligible for appointment as a clerk in that department.

17/11/08 This seems to be a case for the application of the second part of rule (1) & rule 2 of the P. S. Notice. Is not this so?

S. A.

18.11.11 [10]

Entrance test is not the second part of rule (1) & rule 2 says that the cases of persons who have passed other examinations of a similar character may be referred for the special orders of Govt. (It has accordingly been decided that the entrance examinations of the Calcutta, Bombay & Allahabad universities cannot be accepted as equivalent to the Madras upper secondary or matriculation examination). The account test (entrance examination) of the P. W. D. is not an examination of a similar character, being of a specialized kind. The cases of persons who have passed this test cannot therefore be referred for orders.

17/11/08

19/11/08 A "similar kind" might be considered as covering such an exam as the account test, perhaps; but in any case, we may I think take up the line that the man who had passed the particular test & nothing more should not be considered as eligible for an appointment.

What is this Acet Test (Eukaine Examination)? I don't know the examⁿ or where it is sanctioned?

22nd 11/00.

It is a public works examination conducted instituted by the Principal of the College of Engineering.
The subjects for the examination comprise writing,
dictation, Arithmetic, mensuration & book keeping.
Please see page 405 of Part I-B of the Fort St George Gazette of 24th July 1900.
