I have the honour to request you will be so good as to let me know as to whether one Lutf-ur-rahman applied to Government at anytime between 7th May and 7th October 1900, to extend his exemption granted by G.O. No. 803, dated 2nd December 1899 "Educational" to the Police department also; and if so what orders were passed on his petition? This information is required to enable me to dispose of a similar petition which he submitted to me

I have the honour to be

SUBJECT.

FOR ORDERS

The order below may issue but I think Col. Harvey-Kelly should know the circumstances under which Lutfu-ur-rahman's request was re-jected. The man's conduct in making statements which the I. J. L. & confidently asserts to be in- correct was objectionable, & such as indirectly to prejudice ^{the case of} other Musulmans.

I propose to send the P.C.S. the notes at flagged H con- fidentially. w/o.

ORDER No. 652, dated 15-12, 1900.

Mis.

The Paymaster will be informed that Lutf-ur-Rahman submitted an application in July last requesting that the exemption already granted him might be extended so as to enable him to seek for employment in the police department: but that the Govt. was not prepared to grant it.
