From,

H. D. Taylor Esquire, I. C. S., Acting Collector of Ganjam.

To,
The Secretary to Government
Educational Department
Madras.

Dated Chhatrapur 23rd November 1900.

Sir,
I have the honour again to submit
for the favourable consideration of the Govt.
the case of Narayasi Lakshminarasimhamurti permanent sufferer blind and subprotem free tax clerk, Deputy Tahsildar's Office, Sonpet for exemption from the examination rules, so as to admit of his holding appointment in Superior Government Service up to a limit of Rs 25/-.

I submitted his case to Government after the famine of 1897 in conjunction with the name of another, but the Government in its C Proceedings no. 120 dated 25th February 1898, pleased to decline the sanction then asked for in both cases.

3. I now submit this case again separately for consideration. During the period of nearly four years that I have been in this district, the work of this man has been specially brought to my notice, firstly in connection with ^{the} famine and secondly in connection with income tax registers and other duties which have been entrusted to him in addition to his ordinary tree-tax work. He is now in charge of census records in the Sompeta Deputy Tahsil Daro office.

4. I can confidently endorse the opinion of the late Deputy Tahsildar Sompeta that he is "better fitted to be Head Clerk of a taluk office than any of the raw material - lates seeking to enter the service". He writes an excellent hand and his work is carefully performed.

5. Should the Government consider that Rs 25/- is too high a salary to which an unpassed candidate may be promoted, I request that at least he may ^{be} exempted so far as appointments bearing a salary of Rs 20/- are concerned, having reference to the extreme difficulty of procuring passed candidates for taluk offices in this district. A ^{very} large number of posts

even

even in the higher are temporarily filled by unpassed men or by passed men whose qualifications and abilities are in my opinion far inferior to those of V. L. Narasimhamurti for whom exemption is now solicited.

I have the honour to be Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

140 Lanes
Agri. Collector

in this district - of large number of posts reference to the extreme difficulty of procuring of Rs 20/- are concerned, having as appointments bearing a that at least he may be exempted unpassed candidates may be promoted is too high a salary to which an the Government consider that is carefully performed.

C. No. 1660

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the examination rules.

FOR ORDERS.

In G.O. No. 120 Est. of 25th Febry. 1898. the Govt. refused to exempt V.L. Narasimhamurti from the examination rules on the ground that sufficient reason had not been shown for the exemption.

2. The Collector of Ganjam now submit his case again for favourable consideration and request that having regard to the very satisfactory nature of the man's work and the extreme difficulty of procuring passed candidates for taluk offices in the district, a concession may be made in his favour so as to enable him to hold an appointment carrying Rs. 25 or at least Rs. 20. per mensem.

3. Orders are solicited.

No need to define.
