In submitting herewith a list of unpassed temporary and acting peons employed in this division, I have the honour to bring to your notice that although I tried to get passed men to fill their places, no passed men of good physique appeared as a candidate for any of the appointments which are for the most part under Overseers who are retaining the services of the temporary and acting men. I have however again sent advertisements to the Fort St George and District Gazette inviting applications from passed men, and until any men are selected and become available for duty, I should feel obliged by your being good enough to obtain sanction to their

It may not be out of place to mention that some of the temporary men are practically fit for permanent appointments: they, though unpassed, are capable of reading and writing their own vernaculars tolerably well: and, as higher acquirements are really unnecessary in a talukdar, I would recommend their exemption if possible. It would be better in the interests of the service that they should be made permanent, than continue for indefinite periods in a temporary capacity. When temporary men are sent for money, for instance, the rule is that at least two must be sent together; this is not always convenient; and as breaches of trust in respect to Government money are invariably committed by

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the examination rules.

FOR ORDERS.

The Executive Engineer, Coimbatore division submits the names of fifteen unpassed men now employed as temporary and sub pro tem persons in his division and requests that in view of the difficulty in getting passed men to fill their places, sanction may be accorded to the permanent exemption of five of them and the temporary exemption of the remaining ten from the 1st July 1900 to the 31st March 1901. Orders are solicited as to whether the permanent exemption asked for should be given.
