The ~~Chief~~ Secretary to Government,

Educational ~~Judicial~~ Department.

Sir,

One Aiyasami Naidu, who was formerly a private of the 22nd Madras Infantry and was discharged at his own request after a service of 5 years as regimental signaller, has applied to the District Judge of Coimbatore for the post of a process-server. He possesses regimental certificates for the IV, III and II classes. The District Judge obtained from the Officer commanding the 22nd Madras Infantry lists of the subjects in which Aiyasami Naidu was examined for the three certificates mentioned and forwarded them to the Director of Public Instruction requesting the latter to state whether the applicant might be considered to have passed a Test equivalent to the Primary Examination. The Director replied that he was inclined to answer in the affirmative. It may here be stated that the applicant is neither a Pensioner nor a Reservist to whom article 4(1) of the Public Service Notification would apply.

2. The Honourable the Judges are doubtful - whether the Examination passed by Aiyasami Naidu, when a private, may be considered as equivalent to the Primary -- Examination. I am therefore directed to request that you will be so good as to obtain the orders of His Excellency the Governor in Council in the matter.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Registrar.

NOTE FOR THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY.

The examinations for regimental certificates of the IV, III and II classes are not mentioned in the note to article 1 of the public service notification and they cannot therefore as the notification stands, be accepted as equivalent to the primary examination.

2. There seems also to be no necessity to consider whether the notification should now be altered. Pensioners and reservists of the army have to be encouraged and special concessions are made in their favour in clauses (1) and (2) of article 4, but the present applicant is only a discharged private.

We are not asked to alter the rule but to state whether one exam. (of different classes) is equivalent to another.

The answer may be in the negative.

A draft is placed below.

It is submitted that I did not say we were asked to alter the rule. In the face of the Director's opinion we can say

* It is hardly an opinion. He has an inclination to think that one exam. is about as hard as the other.

"no" only so long as the rule stands.

PS
22/2/11

The S.A. misunderstands my note. We have not, as rule 1 stands, power to pass special orders as we have under rule 2. And as it happens ^{that} the High Court have not said "Are these exams" equivalent, & if ~~not~~ they are not, will go after the rule "we ~~may~~ shall do best simply to answer their questions ^{as it stands}.
The Director does not appear to be quite certain, altho' he inclines to think that the exams are "equivalent" in respect to ^{their} difficulty. Gaushamever have ~~at~~ at present merely to rule whether the exams are "equivalent" for the purposes of the p.s. notification. If the D.P.S. wishes rule 1 altered & these exams added to the six named in the note to that rule, he will ^{no doubt} address Government.

2. I think the draft should run
~~as now altered~~.

~~22.2.11~~
as

as now altered.

Better, I think, except to man. It is just as well to encourage the employment of such men. He apparently is quite as well educated as the ordinary man who has passed the primary exam -
