In forwarding herewith an application for exemption from examination rules in favour of J. Jagannathakur Temporary clerk in this Division, I have the honour to inform you that he has gained much experience of the work in this Division and is a very capable hand, having been employed as cashier and accountant in the Mysore Public Works Department. As he has been doing his work very satisfactorily, I should be very sorry to lose his services - There are some raw passed candidates available but they will not be of much use and my difficulty is that I cannot certify that no passed candidates are available

No 461 dated 25 February 1901.

Forwarded to the Chief Engineer Public works department for favour of compliance.

Exemption from the examination rules.

FOR ORDERS

A. B.

J. Jagannatha Rao has been exempted from the examination rules continuously from the 1st April 1899 to the 31st March 1901. It is now proposed to extend the period of his exemption again for another year. It is said that passed candidates are available, but that they will not be of much use, whereas Jagannatha Rao is a very capable hand and has much experience of his work.

It is in a backward

part.

MM

Submitted that a "raw paid candidate" will very soon gain experience enough to be an owners' clerk at Rs 15. and that the temporary exemption should cease now. It is not fair on paid men.

I concur
