To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit a Statement in the prescribed form recommending the exemption from the Oreois test, of two clerks of this office, viz, V. Domambala Mudliar and S. Srinivasulu Naidu and to State as follows.

2. When the Statistical Branch of the Sea Customs office was reorganized last year, those clerks who had hitherto been employed on this work in the Board of Revenue's office were transferred to the Custom House, a general redistribution of salaries occurred, and the then acting collector of Sea Customs recommended to the Board that several men not qualified by examinations might be temporarily exempted until the results of the next examinations were known. This was sanctioned in Board's Proceedings No. 2789 G, dated 7. May 1900, and the men duly appeared for the Special Tests. In the result S. Srinivasulu Naidu and V. Domambala Mudliar have failed in the Oreois writing examination, and for the reasons given below, their permanent exemption from that test is recommended.

(1) V. Domambala Mudliar is 50 years of age and has completed 20 years service during which period his work has been found satisfactory. He has made six attempts to pass the Oreois writing test without success and it is evident that further temporary exemptions would be useless, there being little or no chance of his passing before his service closes. In consideration of his long service and good work, I have the honour to recommend that he may be permanently exempted from passing this test so as to enable him to hold any appointment carrying a salary of not more than Rs 60/- His present pay is Rs 55/-.

to

(2) S. Srinivasulu Naidu is aged 38, and has 19 years service; he has also appeared six times for this Test and failed. His knowledge of values of goods is found to be of great service in the Statistical Department of the office. His present permanent pay is Rs 55 per mensem and he is drawing Rs 60 Subprotem temporary. His exemption up to a limit of Rs 60 is recommended.

3. In cases of men who have failed to pass such Tests, as Sea Customs and Accounts for which it is possible by preparation to ensure success, I have refused to recommend either temporary or permanent exemption, but Oreois writing is not a test for which a clerk can prepare, and as it is a recent matter, I venture to recommend the case of these officers of long service for favourable consideration.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

A. G. Caridem,
Ag. Collector, Sea Customs.
