Resolution of the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, dated Calcutta, 22nd February 1901, No. 1067 P.

Read—

Resolution of the Government of India in the Home Department, No. 224—240, dated 25th January 1901.

Letter from the Comptroller, Central Provinces, No. 7566 S. R., dated 4th February 1901.

Letter from the Accountant-General, Madras, No. 2037 G.—10942, dated 4th February 1901.

Letter from the Comptroller, India Treasuries, No. 1943 G. A., dated 14th February 1901.

Resolution.—In the letters read in the preamble, the question has been raised whether the concession of combining privilege leave with other leave sanctioned in the Resolution of January 25, 1901, read above, applies when the other leave is on full pay under clauses (i) (b) and (ii) (b) of paragraph 2 of the Resolutions of the Government of India, No. 5047 P., dated 15th November 1897, and No. 5217 P., dated 16th October 1900, sanctioning concessions for officers employed on duties connected with famine-relief or the plague.

The Governor-General in Council therefore finds it necessary to explain that the Resolution of January 25, 1901, while it allows the combination of privilege leave, however earned, up to a maximum of three months with furlough or other leave carrying the leave allowances admissible under the ordinary rules, was not intended to allow, and should not be read as allowing, the combination of privilege leave with leave during which full pay is specially admissible under the Resolutions of November 1897 and October 1900.

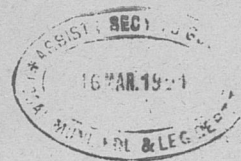

Order.—Ordered, that this Resolution be communicated to the departments of the Government of India; to the several Local Governments and Administrations; to the Heads of Departments under the Finance Department; to the Comptroller and Auditor-General, and to all Accountants General and Comptrollers.

Asst. Secy. to the Govt. of India.
