NOTE FOR THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY.

The A.G. enquires whether Mr. Webster who has been appointed instructor in mechanical engineering at the College of Engineering should be treated as a gazetted or as a non-gazetted officer.

2. Besides Mr. Webster, there are two instructors at the College of Engineering and both of them are gazetted officers being members of the provincial educational service.

3. Mr. Webster has come under a five year's agreement with the Secy. of State and belongs neither to the Indian nor to the provincial educational service. There seems therefore no necessity to treat him as a gazetted officer.

I don't think the last argument goes far enough: if it were accepted, every person sent out on a five years' engagement, whatever his previous career might have been, as the status & pay of his appointment out here might be, would be treated as a ~~ministerial~~ subordinate or clerk. Unless Mr. Webster is quite an ordinary ^{skilled} mechanic, it might be well to declare him a gazetted officer. This ^{would probably} ~~make~~ be of use to him as strengthening his position in regard to the students whom he has to teach. His fellow instructors are gazetted as they are in the ^{Front Service}.

The Secy. I think, says Mr.
Webster? I do not know what class of man he is.

Secretary.

Yes, I saw him & seemed very respectable. Officers drawing the same pay in other Branches of Foot Service are nearly always gazetted officers.
& I think he should be. - This may go to D. P. & Co. for his remarks.

Mr. Webster should have the same standing as the other instructors in the College: he should therefore be a gazetted officer.

Telephone as follows, please, to the Hon. Mr. Brundel (from Secy.
Educl. Dept.).

"Accountant Genl. wishes to know whether Webster, the newly arrived instructor in mechanical engineering, should be regarded as gazetted officer. The Director, who has been consulted, recommends that he should have same standing as the other instructors in the College of Engineering and therefore Officers on same pay are generally gazetted. he gazetted officer. Please telephone approval."
