G.O., No. 213, Public, dated 25th February 1901.

READ—also the following paper :—

EXTRACT from the Proceedings of the Government of India, in the Home Department (Public),—under date Calcutta, the 8th March 1901, No. 1589/1614.

Read—

Resolution No. 224—40, dated 25th January 1901.

Resolution.—The changes in the leave rules which were sanctioned in the Resolution read in the preamble were made applicable by the Resolution only to officers subject to the leave rules in Chapters XIII and XIV of the Civil Service Regulations, the question whether they should be applied to officers of the departments having special leave rules being held over for future consideration.

2. The Governor-General in Council is now pleased to announce that they may be applied, with retrospective effect from January 21, 1901, to the following officers :—

- (1) Military officers in Civil employ who are not subject to the Civil Leave Rules (those who are so subject come under Chapter XIII).
- (2) Statutory Civil Servants.
- (3) Chaplains whose leave is regulated by Section III of Chapter XXVII of the Civil Service Regulations.

In applying the new rules to Chaplains, who are entitled to privilege leave on a more liberal scale than other officers, when privilege leave is combined with other leave the amount of the privilege leave due shall be calculated under the rules in Chapter XII instead of under those in Section III of Chapter XXVII of the Civil Service Regulations. The rules in that section will continue to apply to the privilege leave of Chaplains when taken by itself.

3. The question whether the new rules should be applied to Judges of High Courts and other officers whose leave is wholly or partially regulated by Statutory rules is under the consideration of the Governor-General in Council and will be referred to His Majesty's Secretary of State for India.

Order.—Ordered that a copy of this Resolution be communicated to the departments of the Government of India; to Local Governments and Administrations for information and guidance; and to the heads of offices subordinate to this department.

Ordered, also, that the Resolution be published in the Supplement to the Gazette of India.
