FURTHER PAPERS.

To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

A deputation from the Diocesan Board of Education

The Venerable the Archdeacon (Mr. Elwes) consisting of the members
,, Reverend Mr. Penny
,, ,, Sharp
,, ,, Bazeley
,, ,, Acheson Williams

noted in the margin met me in August last and made the following representations:-

(i) that the maximum salary grants for which teachers in schools for poor Europeans are eligible under the provisions of the Grant-in-Aid code should be given- (vide art-11, ch III)

(ii) that the rate of stipendiary grants for European mistresses under training should be increased.

2. As regards the first request I beg to ~~request~~ state that the maximum salary grants for which the teachers referred to are eligible under the code are not at present given to some schools for want of funds. As an increased provision for grants-in-aid has been made in the current year's budget, the question of giving increased aid to the schools will be duly considered.

3. As regards No (ii), the deputation proposes that the stipendiary grants given to teachers under training under article 9, Chapter VI of the Grant-in-Aid Code, should be raised in the case of European mistresses as follows:-

Madras Rs. Mofussil. Rs.

Lower Secondary grade - - - - - 15 10
Upper Secondary ,, - - - - - 18 12½

The present rates of grants are

Rs.

Lower Secondary - - - 7½
Upper Secondary - - - 10

for European mistresses

in Madras or in Mofussil. The principle adopted by the deputation in fixing the above rates is that Government, which insists on training, should pay half the cost of the maintenance of the teacher during the period of training.

The number of European mistresses under training in aided schools this year is 14, and if these are given stipendiary grants at the higher rates proposed by the deputation, the increased cost to the state will be about Rs. 550. The number is not likely to be much larger in any year, and I would, therefore, recommend the request of the deputation for the favourable consideration of Government. Grants at the increased rate, if sanctioned, may be given from the beginning of this year.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

G. H. Stuart

Director of Public Instruction.
