FOR ORDERS

The Director requests that the son and the son-in-law of the late M. R. Ry M. Seshagiri Sastriyar, Professor of Sanskrit, Presidency College, may be allowed to complete their course in the college without payment of any further fees, as sufficient provision has not been left to them to do so. One of them is in the Junior & the other in the Senior B.A. class.

2. A similar concession was granted to the son of D. Geshaiyengar, a Professor of the same college in 1880- vide G.O. no 310 Edl & 16th August 1880.

3. Orders are solicited as to whether the concession sought may be granted.

To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to allow T.M. Sundaram and K. Venkataramanaiya, the son and son-in-law respectively of the late M. R. Ry. M. Seshagiri Sastriyar, M.A., Professor of Sanskrit, Presidency College, to complete their course of studies in the College without payment of any further fees. They are now studying in the junior and senior B.A. class respectively and I am given to understand that sufficient provision has not been left to them to allow of their continuing in the College without pecuniary aid.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

[Signature]

Director of Public Instruction.

2. from the service list, W. Schuyler
Vastin seems to have held fairly paid appointments, for the last 23 years.

3. There seems no reason why the Educ^l Dept^l should be more entitled to such a concession, than any other Dept^l.

4. There was nothing either in his behaviour or his life or in his death, that seems to give him any exceptional claim on post-

I agree
