SUBJECT.

Requesting sanction to the payment to Messrs. P. The Secretary to Government, Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that the sanction of Government may be accorded to the payment to Messrs. P. Condachary and Sons of the sum of Rupees (85) Eighty-five, this being the hire charged by them for supplying tables and chairs for the use of the candidates that appeared for the Lower Secondary Examination and the Handwriting and Dictation Test for undergraduates held last year at certain of the examination centres in the city of Madras. The tables and stools belonging to my office would have sufficed as in former years, if the University of Madras could have lent the usual number out of its own stock, but this it was not able to do, owing to the degree examinations being held, for the first time last year, on the same dates as the Lower Secondary Examination. The charge, to the payment of which sanction is now applied for, was thus unavoidable.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
J^{ts} A. Street
