Leave Allowances.

Recording letter from the Government of India stating that the extra remuneration drawn by an officer who holds a temporary appointment is not admissible during privilege leave and cannot be taken into account in the calculation of average salary so as to increase his furlough allowance.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following paper:—

G.O., Nos. 190, 91, Financial, dated 6th March 1901. Not come to hand

ABSTRACT.—Directing that the Government of India be addressed on the subject of the leave allowances admissible to an officer (section 94 of the Civil Service Regulations) who holds a temporary appointment to which is attached a pay higher than that drawn by him in the permanent appointment upon which he has a lien.

READ—also the following paper:—

From H. HESELTINE, Esq., Assistant Secretary to the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, 25th April 1901, No. 2217 P.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 191, dated 6th March 1901, regarding the leave allowance admissible to an officer who holds a temporary appointment on pay higher than that which would be drawn by him in his permanent appointment.

2. In reply, I am to say that the Government of India are of opinion that in such a case the extra remuneration drawn by an officer who holds a temporary appointment is not admissible during privilege leave and cannot be taken into account in the calculation of average salary so as to increase his furlough allowance.
