May 13 1907.

My dear Mr Mullaly,

There are three clergymen in the diocese any one of whom would do very well as acting Principal of the Lawrence Asylum till December 9th next viz the Revd. A Westcott, the Revd. G H Smith and the Revd. J. W. Foley and I should not object to any of the three temporarily leaving their present work.

The Revd A Westcott has had educational experience in this Country & has been for sometime Chaplain of the Military Female Orphan Asylum in Madras. The Revd. J W Foley was for many years Principal of Bishop Corrie's School in Madras.

The Revd. G. H Smith is Principal of the S. P. G. College Trichinopoly and has a wife who would be a great help in the work of the Lawrence Asylum.

Both Mr. Westcott & Mr Smith are at present drawing salaries of Rs 500 a month.

and have families at home to provide for. I do not know therefore whether they would be prepared to accept a lower salary. Mr. Foley is drawing Rs 350 a month as incumbent of St. S. Bangalore.

Believe me
Yours very sincerely

Office of the Bishop of Madras
Ootacamund 24th May 1901

My dear Colonel Liardet

If the L. A. Committee has not yet been able to secure an acting Principal, the Bishop would suggest that Rev. G. H. Smith M.A. Principal of the Trichinopoly College who is now staying at Woodcote Coonoor be asked to take up the appointment for the rest of his vacation or for as long as he can anyway, which would probably be till the beginning of July. His Lordship understands Mr. Smith would be willing to join immediately and to act there temporarily.

Then for July to December the acting Principalship might be offered (the Bishop suggests) to the Rev. F. J. Taylor B.A. (Now acting Chaplain of the Kolar Gold Fields, Ooregaum Mysore State) and the Bishop would facilitate his acceptance of the if he so wishes. Mr. Taylor recently had charge of St. Thomas' Church here for a month so he knows something of Ootacamund. He is a good man of business and acted for the greater part of last year, during a vacancy in the permanent appointment before Mr. Elwes could take charge as Secretary Diocesan Office of the S.P.G. in Madras. The Bishop thinks Mr. Taylor would be well suited to the temporary post at Lovedale.

Yours very sincerely
