Copy of letter from the District Judge of North Arcot, No.695, dated 27th April 1901, to the Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Madras:-

I have the honour to forward herewith the application of A.Sreenivasa Rao, a first grade process-amin of the District Munsif's Court of Arni, with the following remarks.

2. In 1893, the District Munsif of Arni recommended this Amin for exemption from passing the Upper Secondary Examination. My predecessor (Mr.Sewell) refused to exempt him with the following order:-

"The District Munsif is informed that the District Judge sees no reason for compliance with the applicant's request. Relaxations of the Examination Rules are unfair to those who have taken the trouble to pass the prescribed examinations. There seems no good reason why the applicant should not pass the examination by taking leave or/ studying in his leisure hours."

3. The Amin renewed his application. On 30th July 1897 I sent his application to the High Court for transmission to Government under G.O., dated 21st July 1894, No.524, Educational para 3. The High Court in their Proceedings No.1351, dated 6th August 1897, passed thereon the following order:-

"The High Court is not prepared to make any recommendation in the matter."

4. In April 1900, the Amin for the third time renewed his application to me. I refused to trouble the High Court again in a matter which they had once settled.

5. For the fourth time the Amin has renewed his application. Under G.O., No.524, dated 21st July 1894, I have not the power to detain the application and I accordingly submit it for ~~sub~~ such orders as the High Court may be pleased to pass.

To

His Excellency the Right Honorable
Arthur Oliver Villiers Baron
Amphthill, Governor of Fort
Saint George, Madras.
The humble and respectful
Memorial of A Srinivasa Row, Processwriter of the District

Through the District judge, North Arcot.

May it please your Excellency:-

1 your Memorialist belongs to a respectable family.

2 your Memorialist knows English and several vernaculars

3. Reverend J. W Conklin appreciating your Memorialists knowledge in English sent him a letter ..... A.

4. your Memorialist delivered an English address to Reverend Henry N. Cobb D.D, the secretary to the American mission during his stay here on professional tour from America, who being pleased with it sent him a reply ..... B.

5. your Memorialist was entertained in this Court as a Copyist in December 1877

as would be shewn by . . . . . C.

6 Your Memorialist has acted in different appointments and has been always discharging his dutues faithfully and loyally. Mr B. Virasawmiah garu, a late District Munsiff of this Court appreciating your Memorialists work recommended him to the District Court as would appear by . . . . . D.

7 On the 3rd " july 1886, the said gentleman appointed your Memorcalist as Process writer on Rs 12 per mensem. Shortly after, he again recommended him to the District Court for an appointment on Rs 14 per mensem pointing out his ability as would appear by . . . . . E.

8. Mr " Subbier avergal, his successor, agreeing with the opinion of his predecessor gave your Memorialist a Certificate . . . . . F.

9. From the 3rd " para of the High Court's letter dated the 13th " September 1889 No " 2234 sent to the District Court, North Arcot, it will be seen that "none but really deserving men of good Character should be recommended for exemption for 20 Rs post". Thereupon Mr " K. Ramachandra Iyer avergal, his successor, recommended your Memorialist to the said District Court recognising his ability as would be provedby G.

10. Mr K Ramachandra Iyer avergal, the said gentleman, favored your Memorialist with a Certificate . . . . . H.

11 On the 14th " March 1893 Mr " T. A Krishna-sawmy Iyer avergal, a former District Munsiff of this Court, fully convinced of your Memorialist's Capability in the office work recommended him to the District Court as would appear by . . . . . I.

12 Again on the 6th " January 1894, the said gentleman expressed his opinion to the District Court in writing that your Memorialists "long experience and willing and intelligent application to any work that may be assigned to him in the Court more than compensate a mere pass" as would be proved by . . . . . J.

13. your Memorialist was directed to do 2nd " Clerk's work as per Proceedings K.

14 Again your Memorialist was directed to act as 2nd " Clerk as per Proceedings L.

15. From all these papers your Excellency will know your Memorialists ability in the office work and his qualifications. He, therefore, submits the Copies thereof for your Excellency's kind and favorable Consideration.

16. By the direction of Mr K. Ramachendra Iyer avl

a former District Munsiff of this Court, your Memorialist attended to the execution work on the ground that it was in "a great Confusion" and cleared off all the arrears.

17. During the time of Mr. T. A Kristnasawmy Iyer avergal, Successor of the abovementioned District Munsiff, your Memorialist took a great deal of trouble in clearing off a Considerable arrears in Small Cause Branch. By the direction of this said gentleman your Memorialist brought up the arrears of entering the Original Suits filed Small Cause Suits disposed of and execution petitions &c. in the Registers. In addition to his heavy work of execution process writing he cleared off, by the direction of his Superiors, Considerable arrears left by the Clerks. Besides this, your Memorialist has translated Maratta and Canarese document and Copied Hindustani in Certain Suits.

18. Thus, it may be convinced to your judicious mind that your Memorialist's Superiors have been greatly pleased with the earnest, Conscientious and painstaking manner in which he has performed the different and difficult works of this Court all through his life. your Memorialist has been solely dependent upon this British Government for nearly ¼ of a Century with full Confidence that he may have a good prospect in the Official Career for the long and meritorious Services rendered by him under the British Government; but alas! those who were entertained in this Court long after your Memorialist superseded him in obtaining promotions on the mere ground of having passed some examination, notwithstanding the fact that your Memorialist had otherwise superior Claims. All that your Memorialist Could state here is that he is a very unfortunate man in the world. In fact, his labor and efficiency were proved to be a Cry in the wilderness and he should have to hold his present appointment, without promotion, till his retirement from public Service, unless your Excellency would be pleased, in the mean time, to show your tender mercy to him.

19. your Memorialist humbly begs to announce to your Excellency that he is a very poor and helpless man burdened with a large family. His Scanty pay of Rs 20 per mensem is hardly sufficient to support them in these hard days.

20. It may not be out of place for your Memorialist to mention here that no sooner had the philosopher's stone touched an iron than the base metal changed into pure gold. So also when your unfortunate Memorialist's hard Case is presented to your magnanimous and merciful sight, he will not only have redress from your Excellency's noble hands, but also will be relieved from all his difficulties like the mist before the rising sun.

21 Further the Benign Government has exempted many unpassed men from the examination rules, and also passed an order that Heads of department are bound to Submit to Government the public Servant's memorial for exemption whether they Support its prayer or not

22 your Excellency being the Common father of your people and your Memorialist having heard of your Excellency's humane disposition has, with the greatest humility ventured to lay his unhappy Case before your Excellency in this manner and implore that Considering his long Service of over 23 years as Copyist and Process writer in this Court, his devotion to the duties entrusted to him, the appreciation of his work by his superiors one and all, the appreciation of his general knowledge of English by the able and independent Reverends &c., his knowledge of the several vernaculars of this Presidency and the Consequent want of time to study for the examination and Considering also that he is senior among those drawing 20 Rs in this Court, your gracious and merciful Excellency will deign to look with Compassion on this poor and helpless man and exempt him from the examination rules to enable him to hold appointment to which no special test is required. In doing so, your Memorialist will get a small promotion of Rs 10 within the time of his retirement from public service.

For special interest your bounty takes your Memorialist shall acknowledge your benevolence with gratitude, and also will ever pray.

My dear Friend

I have been unable to reply before to the kind address how[illegible] me by yourself during my late visit to Arni. Believe me that I highly appreciate your expressions of regard, and that you rightly estimate the motive which brought me to India at this time. I have long desired to see with my own eyes the people of this land among whom my friends have been living and laboring so long and for whom also I have been working and praying so long in our own land.

It is a long journey, full of labor and weariness. But I have felt well repaid by what I have seen and heard. I am rejoiced to know that so many have received the truth contained in the Scriptures, and that there are many who, though they have not fully accepted the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the salvation He came to bring, are yet firm believers in the power and wisdom and goodness of the one only living and true God. My prayer for all such is that they may come also to know Jesus Christ whom He has sent, and acknowledge Him as their Lord and Saviour. There are many Christians in America who are praying earnestly for this.

I am glad to be able to agree with what you say about the glory of God in Creation, and in the Providence which saved Noah, Daniel and other righteous men. Permit me to remind you that the "love" of which you speak so highly and so truly, is His greatest glory and that He has manifested that love especially in the gift of His son Jesus Christ to be our Saviour. And that love pleads with all men, every where, to receive that Saviour. "Whosoever will let him take of the water of life freely." Behold now is the accepted time. Now is the day of salvation." Dearly reciprocating your kind expressions and earnestly praying that you may take and share this great salvation speedily and eternally.

Remain
Yours very sincerely

Sir,

In obedience to the Proceedings of the District
Court No 22 dated the 30th

I sent for and ascertained from Gurusundara Iyer that he is willing to take up Ls Ds place as an amin and do any work Entrusted to him.
Still seeing that his arms are stiffened, as admitted by him, by disease, I am led to doubt whether he could do without arrears the pressing and heavy work of writing processes. I have however appointed him for the work on probation for 6 months and beg to request sanction for the same

I also beg to state that Rajarathna Mudali having been long in service is entitled to promotion to 14 Rs.

Srinivasa Row, the second Copyist is, I should say, the fittest person to be attached to the office work, especially to dispatch the processes with speed, but he is willing to take up the appointment if 14 Rs were allowed him but not otherwise. I beg to transmit his petition for other details.

Sir,

Then as to the place of Rajarathna Mudali, I have more than once reported with approval about the qualification of the Kunnavanmiyer to write the processes of the Court. He has passed the Middle School examination in English in the 2nd class and coupled with it, very industrious. When the duties excepting Rajarathnam steadily refused to write processes last year, the work was managed by this young man from 1st October, 1885. I mate this person an amin instead of Rayarathna Mudali, but to draw only 12 Rs not 14, which I mean to give to the new amin. Srinivasa Row taken up from the Copyist department. Seeing that Srinivasa Row was able to do any amount of work in English and Tamil, whether it is process writing, judgments or Decrees, I wanted to absorb him into the Regular Establishment long ago, but he steadily declined several times on the ground that as a Copyist he had drawn double or triple the salary of an amin. At last when Gurusamdara Iyer was found unfit by age, I prevailed on him to accept the place. I am of opinion therefore that he richly deserves 14 Rs especially when the other amins dread the work of process writing as a tedious task.

Sir,

In submitting herewith the application of A Chinnusa Row, Process clerk on Rs 20 of my Court, I respectfully request that you will be pleased to view his application with favor and recommend him to the Hon'ble High Court for being exempted by Government from the examination rules.

My predecessors have recorded a very good opinion of him, as the Copies of Certificates annexed

by him to his application will show and I fully endorse every word of what they have recorded. There can be no two opinions as to the efficiency of the applicant.
He understands and is able to discharge all the ministerial duties in a Munsiffs' Court and brings to bear upon any work
that is entrusted to him,
an amount of willingness in addition to general intelligence, which is not often to be noticed in the lower Clerks of a Court whenever they are asked to do other Clerks' duties on occasions. He writes a good hand in English and possesses a fair knowledge of that language if we bear in mind the few opportunities he had of learning it. His poverty seems to have stood in the way of his studying in schools till passing an examination, and what little he has learnt he owes to the Charity and goodness of the Missionaries.
He has already been exempted from the rules for the 2 Rs post he holds (vide G.O. 210 of 11.3.[illegible])
and I Consider him a very fit person for further exemption in view of his promotion and therefore beg to recommend his application to your favorable Consideration.

Submitted for favorable Consideration

As I have already strongly recommended his application, by my letter No. 63 of the 14th March last, I have nothing to add to it, except that, as the petitioner explains in para 3 of this application, he has neither the leisure nor the means, for prosecuting the necessary studies for passing the Examination. As his long experience and willing and intelligent application to any work that may be assigned to him in the Court, more than Compensate a mere pass I beg again to recommend his hard case for favorable disposal.
