SOUTH ARCOT COLLECTOR'S OFFICE,

FOREST BRANCH,

Dated 30th December 1900.

Ref. on Cur. No. 3293 For. of 189.

FROM

L. M. Wynch Esquire
J.B.S.
District Forest Officer, Collector of South Arcot.

To

The Secretary to the Government,
Educational Department,
Madras.

SIR,

Enclosure.

One.

I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to grant the permanent exemption of K. Narayanasamy Aiyar from the Handwriting Test. He is a Range Clerk in the Permanent Establishment, and is now employed as Permit Clerk on Rs 15 in the District Forest Office.

2. On a previous application for his permanent exemption, the Board observed in its Proceedings, Forest, No 565 dated dated 26th August 1898 that it did not see sufficient reason to move Government in the matter. But I beg to submit that the special circumstances of the individual's case and more especially the present state of the District Forest Office in respect of its clerical staff seem to warrant this further application.

3. The clerk is 30 years old and has served the Department 13 years, about 10 years as a Range clerk and 3 years in the District Forest Office. He has passed the Matriculation Examination in 1885; also the Departmental Test in Forest Act and Rules and Code and Accounts. He acted as a Forester 3rd grade for a short period having been temporarily exempted from passing the Handwriting Test, for which he has appeared continually since then, but unfortunately has not succeeded in passing.

4. My District Forest Officer says that he is very useful in the office and cannot be satisfactorily replaced by new hands and is of opinion that it would be a hardship to let a deserving subordinate go without any encouragement, his failure in passing the Examination being apparently more constitutional than due to anything wanting on his part. Further there are at present 3 vacancies in the office for which applications were duly invited some months ago by advertisements in the Fort Saint George and District Gazettes. Applications of course poured in and selections were made, but none of them have proved satisfactory up to this time. The selected candidates, for some cause or other, probably owing to the hard work the clerks have to do in the office deserted one after the other, and the vacancies are still not filled up permanently. It will be better to employ this tried individual in one of them instead of risking perhaps another six months of uncertainty, while the office work is heavier than ever. Under the circumstances,

C. No. 10 of 1901.

SUBJECT.

(Handwriting test)
Exemption from the examination rules.

LM

FOR ORDERS.

As to whether the exemption applied for may be granted. Perhaps the Board of Revs. may be consulted, as it appears that in 1898 they refused to recommend the clerk for permanent exemption.

9/1/11

I would accept Mr. Wych's <sup>(strong)</sup> recommendation. He is as competent as the Bd. to give an opinion, & Govt., which has merely to decide the point & exempt or refuse to exempt, will not be helped by having two opinions, whether in agreement or otherwise. Even if the man's handwriting is very bad, the point is of supreme consequence for orders.
