May 13. 1901.

My dear Mr. Mullaly

There are three clergymen in the diocese any one of whom would do very well as acting Principal of the Lawrence Asylum till December 9th next. Viz. the Revd. A. Westcott. The Revd. G. H. Smith and the Revd. J. W. Foley. and I should not object to any of the three temporarily leaving their present work. The Revd. A. Westcott has had educational experience in this country and has been for some time Chaplain of the Military Female Orphan Asylum in Madras. The Revd. J. W. Foley was for many years Principal of Bishop Corrie's School in Madras.
The Revd. G. H. Smith is Principal of the S. P. G. College Trichinopoly and has a wife, who would be a great help in the work of the Lawrence Asylum. Both Mr. Westcott and Mr. Smith are at present drawing salaries of Rs 500/ a month and have ~~fal~~ families at home to provide for. I do not know therefore whether they would be prepared to accept a lower salary. Mr. Foley is drawing Rs 350 a month as incumbent of All Ss. Bangalore.

Believe me
Yours very sincerely
Henry. Madras.

My dear Colonel Liardet

If the Lawrence Asylum Committee has not yet been able to secure an acting Principal, the Bishop would suggest that the Revd. G. H. Smith M.A. Principal of the Trichinopoly College who is now staying at Wood Cote, Coonoor, be asked to take up the appointment for the rest of his vacation or for as long as he can arrange, which would probably be till the beginning of July. His Lordship understands that Mr. Smith would be willing to join immediately and to act thus temporarily. Then for July to December, the acting Principalship might be offered (the Bishop suggests) to the Revd. F. J. Taylor, B.A., (Now acting Chaplain of the Kolar Gold Fields Oorgaum Mysore State) and the Bishop would facilitate his acceptance of the offer, if he so wishes. Mr. Taylor recently had charge of St. Thomas Church here, for a month, so he knows something of Ootacamund. He is a good man of business, and ed for the greater part of last year, during a vacancy in the permanent appointment before Mr. Elwes could take charge as Secretary of the Diocesan Office of the S. P. G. in Madras. The Bishop thinks Mr. ~~John~~ Taylor would be well suited to the temporary post at Lovedale.

Yours very sincerely
H. C. Parker
Bishop's Chaplain
