R. Venkataramaniam Head clerk of the District
Forest Office North Coimbatore from passing the Precis Writing Test.

FURTHER PAPERS.

Coimbatore collector's office,
North Forest Branch,
Coimbatore. 5th June 1901;

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Madras.

Sir,

With reference to Board's Proceedings Forest No. 122 dated 27th March 1901 raising the pay of the appointment of Head clerk in the District Forest Office, North Coimbatore, from Rs 50 to Rs 60 (rising to Rs 70), I have the honor to request that the present Head clerk R Venkakaramaniam may be exempted from the Precise Test (which is a qualification that promotion to Rs 60 entails)

2. He entered the service in 1881 as a Temporary clerk on Rs 15 in the South Forest Office, was made Range clerk for a year, was promoted to 3rd and 2nd clerks in the District Forest Office, and in September 1890 was appointed as Head clerk in that office, an appointment which he still holds after 10 1/2 years service in that capacity.

3. He has, as Head clerk, served under several officers, all of whom have reported very well of his knowledge of his business, his good work and common sense.

4. The increase of pay is intended, I submit, both to obtain the best qualified man for the appointment, to remunerate good service and to be the fitting reward for for a responsible position. I consider that, although the individual referred to may not have passed the precise test - having failed at the last examination - he is far better qualified for the post than others who have passed the Examination, but have not such an efficient knowledge of the Forest work; and at the same time his services of the past 20 years as clerk in the District Forest Office, and of the past 10 1/2 years as Head clerk in that office demand recognition and remuneration, and I think that his promotion to Rs 60 is justified by those services.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your Most Obedient Servant,

C. H. M. S. S.
Collector.

C. No. 792

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the free's writing test.

FOR ORDERS

As to whether the exemption applied for should be granted.

The Clerk seems to have appeared for the examination last year & failed. The Coll. does not say that his Educational qualifications are ~~such~~ so poor that he cannot pass. He may therefore be perhaps asked to try ~~at~~ ^{again} at the next examination & meanwhile he may be temporarily exempted.

7/2/01.

Perhaps this is a case where exemption for good may be sanctioned. There is tolerably long service - more than twenty years & the man's age will be against success in examⁿ.

I think he might be exempted & enabled him to hold the appointment of Foreman & Clerk.
