To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit for the orders of Government with reference to article 279A of the Civil Account Code the following case of over payment of leave allowance to Miss J. Patterson, Sub Assistant Inspectress of Schools, Tinnevely Girls Range from 10th to 23rd January 1900.

2. The Director of Public Instruction granted to the Sub Assistant Inspectress privilege leave for 2 months from 24th November 1899 when she was actually entitled to privilege leave for 1 month and 17 days only, and in his Proceedings No 2481, dated 15th April 1901, he has since commuted the leave into Privilege Leave for 1 month and 17 days and into leave without allowances for 14 days. A copy of his letter in which he explains how the irregular grant of leave occurred is forwarded for the information of Government. It is therefore for Government to decide, with reference to article 279A Civil Account Code, whether the leave allowances for the period from 10th to 23rd January 1900 amounting to Rs. 55-4-7 as shown in the margin should be recovered or remitted, seeing that more than six months have elapsed from the date of payment.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

H. Dobbie.

From

The Honourable Mr. G. H. Stuart, M.A., Barrister-at-Law, Director of Public Instruction, Madras.

To

The Accountant-General to the Government of Madras.

Sir,

In reply to your letter No. T.10 Spl./757, dated 24th April last enquiring whether the Sub-Assistant Inspectress of Girls' schools, Tinnevely Girls range, was not eligible for furlough or leave on private affairs, I have the honour to say that she had no leave of either kind to her credit. She returned from furlough on the 18th June 1898, and as absence on furlough is an interruption of duty ^{written} the meaning of articles 277 and 291 of the Civil Service Regulations, her service qualifying for privilege leave counted only from that date, and ^{hence} have the extension of the privilege leave granted to her from the 24th December 1899 in this Office Proceedings No. 13855, dated 15th December 1899 had to be commuted into privilege leave for the first 17 days, and into leave without allowances for the remaining 13 days. Her service qualifying for privilege leave began only from the 24th January 1900, and on the 24th November 1900 she had put in only ten months service, she was not, therefore eligible for privilege leave for one month from the above date.

2. When the Sub Assistant Inspectress applied for privilege leave in November last, her service register did not accompany her application, but as the leave was urgently required it was sanctioned on the presumption that she was eligible for it pending the receipt of her service register. When this came in however, it was found that she was not eligible for privilege leave and the leave sanctioned in this Office Proceedings No. 11450, dated 16th November 1900 was therefore commuted into leave without allowances.

FOR ORDERS

The A.G. does not make any recommendation in the matter, as required by article 279 A of the Civil account code. It seems however clear that the overpayment should be recovered as ~~the conversion of a portion of the leave~~ originally granted into leave without allowances was ~~unavoidable~~ deliberate.

I am inclined to recommend that the recovery be not enforced. The blame for the overpayment rests rather on the Office of the Director of Public Instruction.

 The leave should not have been granted without a reference to the service book, which was not called for at the time the leave was granted. I have no reason for suppo-
 -sing that the Sub. Asst. Inspectress deli-berately applied for more leave than she was entitled to and deliberately omitted to send her service book in order that the mistake might not be detected
