READ—the following paper:—

From the Assistant Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department (Civil Works—Buildings), to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, dated Simla, 14th November 1900, No. 1245 C.W.B.

In reply to your letter, No. 2260 W., dated the 20th August 1900, I am directed to say that, in the circumstances explained, the Government of India have decided on the addition of the following rule to rule 1066 of the revised rules relating to the construction or purchase of buildings for the residence of Government officials and to the assessment of rents:—

“IV. As regards subsequent outlay on additions to or improvements of residential buildings, the cost of which is properly chargeable to the Capital Account of the buildings concerned, sanction may be accorded by the Local Government or Administration, except in cases where the capital cost is beyond the limit provided in rule I, and where the amount involved is in excess of Rs. 200, in which circumstances the sanction of the Government of India will be necessary.”

A standing order to this effect will issue in due course.

ORDER—No. 36 W., dated 9th January 1901.

Communicated to officers of the Public Works Department and to departments of the Secretariat, in continuation of G.O., No. 2736 W., dated 5th October 1900.
