GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following papers :—

G.O., No. 315A, Educational, dated 27th July 1900.

" " 561 " " 5th Nov. "

READ—also the following paper :—

From the Hon'ble Mr. G. H. STUART, M.A., Barrister-at-Law, Director of Public Instruction, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated 8th July 1901, Ref. on No. C. 3660.

In continuation of my letter No. 10793, dated 29th October 1900, recorded in G.O., No. 561, Educational, dated 5th November last, I have the honour to submit, herewith, a list of books recommended for use in Government and Board schools.

2. In the resolution of the Government of India on the subject of text-books that Government said that in Government and Board schools the text-books for each particular course of study should be "absolutely prescribed". In the case of many of the subjects, however, there are so many excellent text-books that it is very difficult to make a choice of one on any grounds that would justify the exclusion of the rest: and in some subjects, such as Arithmetic for instance, or Euclid, or Algebra, it matters little which of the better class of text-books is used. Some teachers will prefer one and some another, and there seems no reason why they should be prevented from exercising their discretion. In schools which are situated in backward localities or are attended by the poorer classes the price of the books would be a consideration of some importance; for this reason at least, if for no other, some scope should be given for selection.

In the case of books bracketed in the list, it is meant that the books should be used together, one for prose and the other for poetry.

3. Owing to the death of M.R.Ry. Seshagiri Sastriyar and the departure on furlough to England of Mr. Bilderbeck, the President of the Committee, there was some delay in the preparation of the list.

Office of the Director of Public Instruction,
Madras, 8th July 1901.G. H. STUART,
Director of Public Instruction.

ORDER—No. 404, Educational, dated 20th July 1901.

The list of books submitted by the Director is approved and will be published in the Fort St. George Gazette.

(True Extract.)

Ag. Secretary to Government.To the Director of Public Instruction,

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 404, EDUCATIONAL, DATED
20TH JULY 1901.

[SUBJECT—List of books for use in Government and Board Schools.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, Madras, Ref. on C. No. 3660, dated 8th July 1901.

The list submitted by the Director may be approved. It does not appear to be necessary to publish it in the Gazette.

P. T. THARYAN.
12-7-01.

I think it may be taken for granted that by "absolutely prescribed" the Government of India did not really mean more than that Government should expressly approve of certain books.

A. T. PRINGLE.
15-7-01.

Yes, vide Hon'ble Mr. Arundel's remark at page 17 of notes in Government Order dated 27th July 1900. But why should not the list be published in the Gazette?

C. J. WEIR.
15-7-01.

The present list is of books prescribed for Government and Board schools. The public are not concerned with the matter and it seems to be unnecessary to publish the list. A list under rule V for the Educational department of books prescribed for all schools has to be published in April every year. That list must contain the names of all the books entered in the present list.

P. T. THARYAN.
15-7-01.

I think there would be no harm and some advantage in publishing the present list in the Gazette; it would show the Government of India that their wishes in the matter were being attended to.

A. T. PRINGLE.
16-7-01.

Government has to approve the list, and this may now be done and its publication ordered.

C. J. WEIR.
16-7-01.

Yes.

Secretary—

The Director of Public Instruction may be asked u.o. to have the list carefully corrected and returned. I have marked the omissions and errors in the Arabic, Persian and Hindustani items, but think there is really no need to mark alif moved by zabar with the symbol¹; if it is done, it should be done throughout; as the list is sent up by the Director of Public Instruction we have Qáwá'id¹ [sic]; Muntakhabát-e-Fársi²; Ashár³; and other cases where the symbol is used, along with others—the great majority—where it is not used at all. It had better be omitted everywhere.

2. On the other hand the presence of 'ain should be indicated everywhere. Here there is no uniformity at all; it is shown in Qawá'id (twice⁴ misspelt Qáwá'id) but not in Jámí⁵ (misspelt Janni⁶ in one place and Jamil⁶ in another), nor in 'Ilm.⁷ nor in 'Arúz,⁸ nor in Ashár,⁹ nor in 'Arabíya,¹⁰ nor in 'Arab (misspelt¹¹ Arat), nor in 'Ajíb,¹² nor in T'alím.¹³

If Mr. Scott would get the list looked over as regards the Arabic, etc., items by a Musulman clerk, it would be a good thing. It has been necessary to guess at one or two books; the "Adab-ul-Arat"¹⁴ for instance is supposed to be the "Adab-ul-'Arab" but the clerical error may conceal some other name.

3. I have seen lists of this kind which, in consequence of allowing errors at the beginning to pass uncorrected, had become perfectly crowded, as fresh editions came out, with entries which fairly baffled everybody to guess at; and in the Educational department this may be prevented, on principle. I remember seeing some remarks by Sir C. J. Lyall on such a list sent in by a head of a department, in which he said the least thing to be expected of a Secretariat office was to see that what is published was correct and as far as possible not unscholarly!

A. T. PRINGLE.
15-8-01.

Very well. Send to the Director of Public Instruction u.o. as proposed.

C. J. WEIR.
17-8-01.

To the Director of Public Instruction u.o.

Resubmitted with a list in manuscript of the names of the texts in Hindustani, Arabic and Persian correctly spelt.

T. R. SCOTT.
24-8-01.

Educational Clerk—

The Director has attended to the Hindustani, Arabic and Persian books only. I have seen to the Malayalam books. You had better look to the Tamil books and get some competent person to see to the Telugu, Sanskrit and Canarese books and have the order struck off.

P. T. THARYAN.
29-8-01.

The Tamil, Telugu, Canarese and Sanskrit books have been attended to.

2. In the Resolution of the Government of India on the subject of text-books that Government said that, in Government and Board Schools, the text books for each particular course of study should be "absolutely prescribed". In the case of many of the subjects, however, there are so many excellent text books that it is very difficult to make a choice of one on any grounds that would justify the exclusion of the rest: and in some subjects, such as Arithmetic for instance, or Euclid, or Algebra, it matters little which of the better class of text books is used. Some teachers will prefer one and some another, and there seems no reason why they should be prevented from exercising their discretion. In schools, which are situated in backward localities or are attended by the poorer classes, the price of the books would be a consideration of some importance: for this reason at least, if for no other, some scope should be given for selection. In the case of books bracketed in the list, it is meant that the books should be used together, one for prose and the other for poetry.
