Copy of letter from the District Judge of South Malabar No.425, dated 29th June 1901, to the Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Madras:-

I have the honour to state that one Valiyadath Mammad, a mapillah ex-pupil of the Reformatory School at Chingleput, was appointed by me on the 15th November last as a 3rd class process-server in the Central Nazarat attached to this Court on the recommendation of the Superintendent of the Reformatory School under the impression that Government meant to exempt pupils of the Reformatory School from passing the Primary Examination for the posts referred to in para 3 of the letter of the --- Director of Public Instruction read in G.O., No.388, dated 24th August 1900, Educational, but on reading the G.O. again, I have some doubts whether my first impression was correct. I therefore request that Government may be asked whether, in approving the suggestion of the Director of Public Instruction in regard to the employment of the discharged pupils of the Reformatory School and requesting all heads of Departments to co-operate in the matter, the Government meant that such pupils should be exempted from the Primary Examination, seeing that the Director declares that the training in the school fits the pupils for appointments as process servers etc. and if such was not the intention, that Government may be moved to exempt Valiyadath Mammad from the Primary Examination Rules so that he may be allowed to continue in the post which he now holds.

The Superintendent of the Reformatory School on a reference from me states that Mammad has passed the 3rd Standard in Tamil and Standard C in Tailoring and that he was studying for the Primary Examination which he should have passed had he remained two months longer in the School.
