June 1901.

In submitting herewith an application for exemption from examination rules of unpassed acting and temporary persons employed in this division, I have the honor to bring to your notice that although effort was made to get passed men to fill their places, no passed man of good physique appeared for any of the appointments which are mostly under overseers who are retaining the services of the temporary and acting men. In point of fact, my predecessor did appoint four passed men to take their places and of these, three were declared unfit after one and two months' probation and the fourth did not join.

2

2 As some of the acting and temporary peons now in service though they are unpassed men are better fitted for the post and reported to be capable of reading and writing their mother tongue tolerably well, I would recommend their permanent exemption from examination rules once for all to avoid audit objection.

No 388
Copy submitted to the Chief Engineer P. W. D for favor of obtaining the sanction of Government for the exemption applied for.

2 Sanction for exemption of Peon Subba Row stated to have been omitted from the list previously sanctioned is applied for separately.
