Telegram from His Majesty's Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Governor, dated 10th July 1901.

Private. Your letter, Educational, 11th June last, Inspectress, Girls' Schools. Would you prefer appointment of one of the ladies named or that I should select outsider?

Demi-official from R. H. CAMPBELL, Esq., I.C.S., Acting Private Secretary to His Excellency the Governor, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated Ootacamund, 11th July 1901.

His Excellency desires me to send you the accompanying copy of a telegram (deciphered) which he has received from the Secretary of State and wishes you to bring up the papers in Council to-morrow.

ENCLOSURE.

Telegram from His Majesty's Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Governor, dated 19th July 1901.

Private. Your telegram of 13th July [1901], Girls' Schools. Arnold being already in Indian educational service, it is within your powers to appoint her to new post of inspectress. When this is done and vacancy created, I shall be glad to appoint Gow to fill it. I presume that she is not too old.

Telegram from the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, to the Director of Public Instruction, Madras, dated Ootacamund, 19th July 1901.

If, as presumed, Miss Gow is over forty, is there any objection to her appointment as Superintendent, Presidency Training school for mistresses? What is her present address and exact age?

Telegram from the Director of Public Instruction, to the Secretary to Government Educational Department, dated 22nd July 1901.

Your telegram 19th. Age no objection on my part. Address Miss E. A. Gow, Headmistress, La Martinière Girls' High School, Lucknow. Exact age unknown to me.

Telegram from the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, to Miss Gow, La Martinière Girls' High School, Lucknow.

With reference your application appointment Madras educational service Government request information as to your present age.

Telegram from Miss GOW, Lucknow, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated 23rd July 1901.

Present age thirty-nine. Telegraph result of information.

For His Excellency the Governor—

Miss Gow's age has been ascertained to be thirty-nine years. She is at present employed as Headmistress of La Martinière Girls' high school at Lucknow.

2. The Director of Public Instruction states that he has no objection to Miss Gow's appointment on the ground of age, and it is submitted that a person of Miss Gow's years is likely to have more weight and influence in a training school for mistresses than a younger woman would have. The general rule laid down in the Civil Service Regulations is that persons over 25 years should not be appointed to the public service, but the Secretary of State can of course depart from the rule. A reduction, however, is made from the pension of every person entering the public service after attaining 30 years of $\frac{1}{4}$ th for each year by which their age exceeds 30 at the time of their entertainment, so that if Miss Gow ever earns a pension it would be reduced by $\frac{2}{4}$ ths. It might be well before definitely offering her the appointment to call her attention to these provisions of the Civil Service Regulations. She is at present apparently in a good appointment and probably the pension is the principal inducement to her to enter Government service. It is submitted that the receipt of the despatch of the Secretary of State through the Government of India may be awaited before gazetting Miss Arnold to the new appointment of inspectress.

C. J. WEIR.
26-7-01.

I have telegraphed privately to the Secretary of State as follows:—

"Thanks for your telegram of 18th July. Shall use discretion you leave me to appoint Arnold on receipt of your despatch sanctioning creation of new appointment. Gow is 39 years old and we consider this rather an advantage than otherwise, but as her pension will be affected, please let us explain this to her before you offer appointment."

Miss Gow should be informed accordingly by telegraph and asked whether she is prepared to accept the appointment if offered to her by the Secretary of State.

A[MPHILL].
27-7-01.

The following wire should now go to Miss Gow:—

"In the event of Secretary [of] State offering you appointment of Superintendent [of] Training School for Mistresses on Rs. 350—10—450, will you accept it? Your attention is invited to articles 441 and 521 [of] Civil Service Regulations and their effect on any pension you may earn."

C. J. WEIR.
27-7-01.

Telegram from Miss GOW, Lucknow, to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department, dated 30th July 1901.

Will accept. Telegraph date of joining if appointed.

Demi-official from C. J. WEIR, Esq., Acting Secretary to Government, Educational Department, to the Director of Public Instruction, Madras, dated 8th August 1901.

The Secretary of State has appointed Miss Gow to the Superintendentship of the Presidency Training School for Mistresses. Please let me know when you wish her to join.

Demi-official from the Honourable Mr. G. H. STUART, Director of Public Instruction, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated Madras 9th August 1901.

Your demi-official No. 38. It is not absolutely necessary that Miss Gow should join at once, but I think it better for the Training school that she should do so as soon as she can get rid of her present appointment and make her arrangements. I shall also want her to act as third inspectress during Miss Arnold's absence, and, after her return, during Mrs. Brander's absence. If Mrs. Brander does not return I shall recommend Miss Gow to be third inspectress, but this is looking ahead. The office of the third inspectress is not yet formed and Miss Gow may have to remain at the Presidency Training school for a while. Will you please tell her to join as soon as she can complete her arrangements to do so? I do not wish to hurry her, but I expect she will not lose any time—at 39.
