Proceedings of the Board of Revenue

(Revenue Settlement, Land Records and Agriculture),

Dated 26th July 1901.

No. 3773 Misc.

Mr. J. N. Atkinson.

Read the following letter from C.A. Barber Esq, Government Botanist,
No. 224 dated 23rd June 1901.-

I propose to appoint my peon Ramasawmy to the post of Asst. Collector on Rs. 15. But for a short interval, he has been with me from the commencement and his work has been uniformly good. He has a thorough knowledge of plant collecting and his general behaviour has been beyond reproach. I consider it necessary that the holder of this post should have a knowledge of English, and as Ramasawmy is learning, I would propose to appoint him sub protem.

He has not ~~passed~~ however passed any examination tests and I do not think it necessary that he should do so merely satisfying me that he understands my orders. Will the Board kindly obtain the necessary exemption for him.

Will it be possible for the exemption to be re--- retrospective from the date of appointment for Ramasawmy has been doing Asst. Collector's work.

Read also the following Board's Reference thereon No. 1260 dated 28th June 1901.-

The Government Botanist is requested to state from what date he proposes that the appointment should be made retrospective.

Read also the following letter from C.A. Barber Esq, Government Botanist, No. 242 dated 16th July 1901.-

In reply to Board's Reference No. 1260 dated 28th June 1901, I have the honor to state that I would propose that the appointment referred to should be made retrospective as from the 1st June 1901.

Resolution.-

Submitted for the orders of Government, with reference to G.O. No. 1123 / 9.5.01, Revenue.

2. The Government Botanist proposes to appoint his peon as an assistant plant Collector and remarks that the peon has been with him from the commencement of his work and has a thorough knowledge of plant collecting. As the peon has not passed any examination, the Government Botanist requests that he may be exempted from the examination rules with effect from 1st June last. Considering the special nature of

of the work to be performed, the Board supports his recommendation.
