To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

The Handwriting and Dictation Test for Undergraduates held in December is identical with the test in these subjects in the Upper Secondary Examination, or, in other words, the papers in these subjects for the Upper Secondary Examination serve for the Handwriting and Dictation Test also, and as the Lower Secondary Examination is held at the same time as the Upper Secondary Examination, it is almost impossible at some centres to find room and arrange for the very large number of candidates that appear in the afternoon of the first day for all three examinations. Superintendents have frequently complained of the trouble and inconvenience to which they are put, and have pointed out the necessity for a change in the present arrangements.

I have the honour to request, therefore, that Government will be pleased to permit me to make such alterations in the Time Table for the Upper Secondary Examination as will afford to superintendents the desired relief. What I propose to do, as a tentative measure, is to transfer to the first, second and third days the subjects set down for the fourth, fifth and sixth days, without disturbing the order in which they follow one another, so that what appear now as the subjects for the first day of examination will become the subjects of the fourth day. In the afternoon of the fourth day there are no male candidates for the Lower Secondary Examination, and this will make it easy for Superintendents to find accommodation for the Handwriting and Dictation candidates.

The proposed alterations are shown in the accompanying Table.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
your most obedient servant,

G. F. Stuart
Commissioner.

HANDWRITING AND DICTATION TEST FOR UNDERGRADUATES—DECEMBER 1900.

Day.	Hours.	Subjects.
Saturday, 8th December	2 P.M. to 2-30 P.M. 2-45 P.M. to 3-15 P.M.	Handwriting. Dictation.

Attention is drawn to the following rules:—

1. No candidate will be allowed to enter the examination room unless he wears a clean and decent dress, and, in all cases where good manners require it, a suitable covering for the head, nor will he be allowed to keep his shoes on unless they are shoes of English pattern, and socks and trousers are worn also.
2. No candidate will be allowed to quit the examination room on any day until the expiration of half an hour from the time fixed for the commencement of the examination, and candidates arriving after the expiration of that half hour will not be admitted.
3. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination room during the hours of examination after once quitting it, nor to leave the room without finally giving up his answer papers.
4. Any candidate detected in speaking to, or in any way communicating with, any other candidate will be at once removed from the room and the circumstance reported to the Commissioner.
5. Any candidate suspected of having had recourse to malpractice of any kind is liable to have his examination invalidated and also to be debarred from appearing again for any of the examinations under the control of the Commissioner for such term of years as the Commissioner may think fit; or, if the Commissioner is not satisfied as to the trustworthiness of his results, he may be required to undergo a re-examination in any one or more of the subjects of the examination for which he appeared.
6. No candidate will, on any account, be allowed to take into the examination room ink, slates, books, ruled sheets, manuscripts or papers of any kind. Any one detected in the violation of this rule or having recourse to any unfair practices, will be removed from the room and the occurrence reported to the Commissioner. Candidates will, however, be allowed the use of mathematical instruments for drawing figures or ruling lines.
7. A candidate having completed his paper will rise from his seat and remain standing until the Superintendent takes his answer papers. Any candidate wishing to ask any question of the Superintendent will pursue the same course, but will on no account leave his place.
8. Any paper sent up without the candidate's name and number affixed will not be examined.
9. Candidates will not be allowed to take any papers, except their question papers, out of the examination room.
10. Candidates are forbidden to tear up papers or to throw ink or papers on the floor. All "spoilt copies, &c.," should be left on the desk where the candidate has been writing.
