GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers:—

Reference of the Board of Revenue (Land Revenue), B. No. 280, dated 7th June 1901.

Read—the following letter from A. C. WOODHOUSE, Esq., Agency Deputy Collector, Gódvári, to the Government Agent, Gódvári, dated Camp, Addatigela, 19th May 1901, Ref. on Tour C. No. 95:—

With reference to the entry against No. 246 on page 4 of the Fort St. George Gazette supplement, dated 14th May 1901, I have the honour to request that you will be pleased to forward this communication as my respectful protest to Government against the declaration that I failed in Stamp law and rules in the Revenue Higher test last October. I kept most careful notes of my replies to questions, and am certain that I scored at least 3.25 marks out of a maximum 7. The minimum required for a pass was 2.3. I passed in this subject in 1888 and 1889. I have reason to believe that the examiner in 1900 was a retired Deputy Collector who has had no practical experience of the working of India Act II of 1899. I therefore request that my papers in Stamp law and rules in 1900 may be re-examined, and that, if the re-examination shows that I obtained more than the minimum marks required for a pass in the subject, I may be declared to have passed the Revenue test, Higher grade.

D. Dis. No. 138-Ag.

Forwarded to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue.

4th June 1901.

J. H. MUNRO,
Acting Government Agent.

Reference—B. No. 280, dated 7th June 1901.

The Board submits, for the orders of Government, through the Commissioner for Government Examinations, a representation from Mr. A. C. Woodhouse, Deputy Collector, Agency division, Gódvári, requesting that his answer paper in the subject of Stamp law and rules in which he failed at the examination in the Revenue test, Higher grade, held in October last, may be revalued.

A. R. CUMMING,
Acting Secretary.

To the Secretary to Government, Local and Municipal Department, through the Commissioner for Government Examinations, with letter in original.

From the Hon'ble Mr. G. H. STUART, 'M.A., Barrister-at-Law, Commissioner for Government Examinations, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated 15th August 1901, No. 173/2-D.

I have the honour to submit, for the orders of Government, a letter from Mr. Woodhouse, Agency Deputy Collector, Gódvári district, protesting against his having been declared to have failed in Stamp law and rules in the Revenue Higher grade test held last October, and praying that his answer papers in this subject may be revalued. In doing so, I would invite the attention of Government to my predecessor's letter, No. 313/2-D., dated 20th July 1899, forwarding to Government a similar application from Mr. Woodhouse.

2. The answer papers of candidates have probably, by this time, all been destroyed, so that it is impossible now to comply with Mr. Woodhouse's request; but an inspection of his marks in the other subjects of the test furnishes no grounds for presuming that a revaluation of his answer papers in Stamp law would be of any benefit to him. In Revenue law and regulations, perhaps, the most important of the four subjects comprising the Revenue test, he just gets the bare minimum—40 out of 120 marks—and even if his failure in Stamp law were passed over, it would not help him in the least, as he falls short of the aggregate minimum by 7 marks and would still be considered to have failed.

3. In submitting Mr. Woodhouse's letter to Government, I have followed the course taken by Dr. Duncan, though I am not sure that I am right in doing so. Mr. Woodhouse has chosen to address Government, although he might, in the first instance, have applied to the Commissioner, who is responsible for the conduct of these examinations and who has it in his power to have any real errors of examination corrected if they are brought to his notice. I shall be glad to know whether I am in future to forward to Government such applications as the one now submitted.

ORDER—No. 472, Educational, dated 23rd August 1901.

Mr. Woodhouse's request will be remitted to the Commissioner for disposal.

2. The Commissioner will be authorized to dispose of such matters in future on his own responsibility.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 472, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 23RD AUGUST 1901.

[SUBJECT.—Revaluation of answer papers.]

From the Commissioner for Government Examinations, No. 173/2-D., dated 15th August 1901.

Mr. Woodhouse's request is an unusual one and cannot be complied with. Moreover, in all probability, the papers would have been destroyed by this time.

2. The Commissioner does not, however, say how many marks Mr. Woodhouse got in stamp law and rules. His statement, that even if the failure in that subject were passed over it would not help Mr. Woodhouse, has therefore to be taken with some reservation.

3. With reference to paragraph 3 of the Commissioner's letter it is submitted that he should forward to Government all communications intended for them with, of course, such remarks as he thinks the cases call for.

P.T.THARYAN.
20-8-01.

Mr. Woodhouse's request should, I think, be remitted to the Commissioner for disposal. It is surely undesirable that Government should deal with such questions. An officer of high position, eminently fitted to decide all doubtful cases, controls these State examinations and his judgment may be relied on. In regard, therefore, to paragraph 3, I submit that the Commissioner may be told that he is authorized to dispose of such matters on his own responsibility.

A. T. PRINGLE.
