To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

It has just come to my notice that, since June 1893, the Inspector of schools, Western Circle, has been employing in his office a temporary attender to do the duties of record-keeper in addition to registering the letters received &c on a salary of Rs.10 per mensem till 31st March 1900 and of Rs.12 per mensem after that date. The charge was met from the contingent allotment of the office till 1897 when on a reference from the Accountant-General, the matter formed the subject of some correspondence with Government and sanction was finally given in G.O.No 542, Edul.

X dated 27th August 1898 to the entertainment of a temporary attender on Rs.8 per mensem in each of the offices of the Inspectors of schools, Inspectresses of girls' schools and Assistant Inspectors of schools for nine months. The Inspector has been continuing his services throughout the year without authority. For nine months of the year the attender was paid Rs.8 per mensem from the allotment for temporary establishment and Rs.4 from contingencies and for the remaining three months the whole salary was paid from contingencies, being charged as cooly paid for sorting records. In explanation of this irregularity, the Inspector says that the services of the attender were found absolutely necessary as none of the clerks on the permanent establishment could be spared for this work without detriment to the prompt despatch of office correspondence, and that this procedure which he has been following so long has never, till now, been objected to by the Account Department. The Accountant-General having now raised an objection, I have the honour to request that the Inspector's action may be condoned. He will be required to see that similar irregularities do not occur in future.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

G.H. Stuart

Director of Public Instruction.
