NOTE FOR THE Secretary

The note below is from the Assistant & Manager of the office of the Director.

It seems doubtful whether Govt. can pass an order of the kind mentioned unless Mr. Stuart is considered to be on deputation & to have temporarily vacated the appointment. Article 108 of the C.S.R. contemplates the occurrence of a vacancy before an officer can be placed in charge of the current duties of an appointment.

As the matter stands it is at the same time not quite clear why Mr. Scott cannot sign bills & issue certificates "for the Director". Our pay bills are signed by the Assistant Secretary "for the Secretary". Mr. Scott is a gazetted officer. Perhaps the A.S. may be asked whether he will raise any objection to bills signed by Mr. Scott "for the Director" and if he will not Mr. Scott may be instructed to follow that course.

Best wire to A.S.

Asking him if he will make any objections. What are the certificates referred to?

Govt

5.9.01

A telegram is placed below for approval & signature. The certificates are apparently those issued under article 89 or 91 of the C.S.R. to enable Govt. officers to draw the remuneration due to them for acting as university or other examiners.
