Public Service Notification -

Add the following to the note to clause
(3) of article 3. 3

Divisional officers may, so far ~~(as their offices and their)~~ as their Taluk offices are concerned, ~~(entertain)~~ ^(and sanction the entertainment of) ~~the employment of~~ ^{unpassed} candidates up to a period of three months, ^{the concessions are} provided they ~~are~~ ^{subject to the condition that bonafide endeavours have been made} have duly advertised for passed candidates and failed to obtain them.
(and add the following to the same article

"(17) In Ganjam, Vizagapatam, the Ceded Districts and the Nilgiris, the Collector may sanction the ^{entertainment} ~~employment~~ of unpassed candidates up to a period of six months. ~~and~~ ^{Divisional officers} up to three months. In other districts

Secretary -

There is possibly some misapprehension here due to the wording of clause (12) of para-2 of G.O. No. 282 Rev., 18 May 1898.

2. Mr Meyer drew a distinction between certain special districts, in which it was not always easy to find passed men, & ordinary districts. As regarded the former, he proposed to give Collectors power to engage or sanction the engagement of unpassed men for half a year, & divisional officers similar power for half that time; in the latter case, he said 'Let divisional officers have as much power as Collectors now have, subject to the condition of proper advertisement in the first instance'. He ~~mentioned~~ as a reason for this proposal this last proposal the frequency of short vacancies in the taluk officers, & wound up by saying that after all the Collector must generally accept the divisional officers' assurance that a papered candidate was not available.

3. The order of Goub. repeats Mr Meyer's special reference to taluk officers, & if the proposed notification does the same, it is thought however that neither Mr Meyer nor Goub. meant to require a reference from divisional officers in respect to the entertainment of unpassed men in their own offices. Had this been intended, there would have been a similar restriction in regard to the case of the special districts named. As it is, however, power is given to divisional officers to entertain unpassed men in their own offices as well as to sanction the engagement in the unpassed taluk officers.

4. We may ask the Rev. Dept. whether this is not so; & if their intention has been rightly understood in this note, may suggest the addition of the words in red ink.

I think they do. Mr Meyer & Govt probably had in view the fact that in ordinary districts it is very rarely necessary to appoint an unpassed man to a divisional office & that such rare cases should be specially sanctioned by the Collector. Govt

This is sound enough. In some parts of these special districts it is very difficult to get passed men for short vacancies even in divisional offices.

Govt

I think Rev. Sec. of 18.5.98. intended to discriminate between powers of St officers in ordinary & in the special districts in the matter of making appointments to their own offices, & that there are good reasons for doing so.

The draft sent up by D.P.S. ^{regimes} D. officers ~~was~~ to have advertised before they entertained unpassed men. This was suggested by Mr Meyer but the G.O. said nothing about advertising & only required a certificate to be submitted with the half yearly return that 'bona fide' endeavours had been made to secure a passed man. It will be inconvenient to require that there should be prior advertisement & the words of the Sec. may be adopted.

It would seem from the wording of the Sec. that the certificate from collectors & St officers are equally required when unpassed candidates are appointed in Sangam, Vizag &c.

There are two questions raised.

I. As to the power of Dist Officers to sanction the employment of unpassed men in their own Offices.

As the order stands in G.O.

282. D 18 May 1898 para 2 (12) Dist Officers D. in Ganjam Vizagapatnam the Ceded Districts & the Nilgiris have power to sanction ^{the} employment ^{of such men} for 3 months without any restriction as to the office in which the man is to work i.e. it may be in their own office or in an office subordinate to them. In other districts Dist Officers can sanction such employment in their Taluk Offices

The question is whether it was intended not to give the D.O. the power of sanctioning the employment of unpassed men in his own office in the generality of districts. The notes on which the G.O. ^{was} based are placed below & the notes on this particular proposal of Mr. Meen will be found at the page flagged C. It will be seen that the point now raised was not specifically considered.

The Educ. Dept suggests a reason for the restriction of power in the ordinary districts or, rather, for the extension of power in the districts specially named above. In the latter qualified men are hard to get: & relaxation is necessary in Dist & subordinate offices alike. Whereas in the ordinary district the employment of unpassed men in Dist Offices should be jealously guarded in the Collector's hands.

It may be questioned however whether the employment of unpassed men ~~is~~ in the ordinary district is not just as objectionable in the Taluk (or Dz Taluk) Office as in the Dist Office: & further ^{it may be said} that the temptation to employ such men is stronger in the case of the Taluk, or other subordinate, office, than in the case of the Dist Office. Further the power given to sanction such employment for 3 months only & that subject to a certificate that bonafide endeavours have been made without success to obtain a passed candidate. On the whole therefore there seems no very valid reason why a Dist Officer should not be allowed the same power as regards his own office in ~~examining~~ all districts.

II The second point raised is whether the certificate above referred to should state that advertisement has been made. It is pointed out in Edul, the G.O. said the certificate was to be to the effect that bonafide endeavours had been made without success to obtain a passed candidate. This seems, it is submitted, sufficient.

As to (1) I agree; but as to (1) I think the difference bet- the special dists & the other dists sh^d be maintained.

Once an unpassed man gets a footing in an office it is almost impossible to turn him out. The rules are evaded in all sorts of ways & the pressure

It is submitted that the notification may be amended as shown below:-

"Add the following to the note to clause (3) of article 3:-

In Ganjam, Vizagapatnam, the Ceded districts and the Nilgiris, the Collector may sanction the entertainment of unpassed candidates up to a period of six months and divisional officers up to three months.

provided that bonafide endeavours have been made without success to obtain passed candidates. In other districts ^{Revenue} divisional officers may, subject to the same proviso as above and so far as their taluk offices are concerned, entertain unpassed candidates up to a period of three months."
