GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From A. WILLIAMS, Esq., Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Education), to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, the 3rd September 1901, No. 374.

In continuation of Home Department letter No. 299, dated 31st July 1901, I am directed to forward, for the information of the Governor in Council, a copy of the despatches noted in the margin on the subject of the future management and control of the Madras Law College.

ENCLOSURES.

Despatch from the Government of India, Home Department (Education), to His Majesty's Secretary of State for India, dated Simla, the 13th June 1901, No. 4.

With reference to paragraph 3 of our Financial (Education) despatch No. 108, dated the 28th March 1901, on the subject of the future management and control of the Madras Law College, we have the honour to forward, for your Lordship's information, a copy of a further letter from the Government of Madras regarding the future administration of the college.

2. It will be seen that the proposal of the local Government to abolish the council of the college and to strengthen the number of ex-officio visitors has been reconsidered in consultation with the Honourable the Chief Justice of Madras and Mr. Justice Shephard and that it is now proposed that the council should consist of two or more Judges of the High Court and of such other members, not being professors, as may be appointed by Government. The principal will be a member of the council, but not the chairman, and professors will be entirely excluded. These modified proposals have our approval, and we commend them to your Lordship's favourable consideration.

Despatch from His Majesty's Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India in Council, dated London, 26th July 1901, No. 97, Public (Educational).

Having considered in Council your letter No. 4, dated 13th June last, I approve the arrangements reported by you for the future management and control of the Madras Law College.

ORDER—No. 518, Educational, dated 13th September 1901.

Communicated to the Director of Public Instruction with the request that in submitting the report called for in G.O., No. 447, Educational, dated 12th August 1901, proposals may also be made for the reconstitution of the college council.
