FURTHER PAPERS.

To

Through the Paymaster

Madras 6th September 1901.

To

His Excellency The Right Hon: Arthur Oliver Villiers, Baron

Amphill. G.C.I.E.

GOVERNOR OF MADRAS.

The humble petition of Ghulam Dastgir Ghias.

Respectfully sheweth,

That your petitioner is the son of Hakim
Muhammed Ghouse Sahib Ghias.

1. That he had been studying in the Wesleyan Mission College, Royapettah and had made satisfactory progress with his studies. He was also a candidate from the above institution for the Matriculation Examination held in 1898. but just before the Examination he became very ill in consequence of which he could not appear for the examination. Thereafter he was, under medical advice compelled, tho' most reluctantly to discontinue his studies, Dr. Crawford I.M.S. being of opinion that your Excellency's petitioner should not engage himself in study or any severe mental work. He was therefore, under circumstances over which he had no control, forced to give up his studies, which he, however, resumed on his recovery, but as he had relapses of his former illness, he was compelled to abandon them again.
2. That as your Lordship's petitioner found it difficult to lead an idle life, he tried to procure for him some employment but owing to the operation of the Examination rules it became impossible for him to obtain a berth in any Government Office. He, however, succeeded in securing a Clerkship in the firm of Messrs: Binny & Co.
3. That he is very anxious to serve in a public Office; but so long as he is an unpassed candidate he cannot realise his desire.

4. That the British Government have in many instances been kind enough to grant Exemptions from the Examination rules in the case of young men who were not like your Lordship's petitioner victims of adverse circumstances. From the foregoing lines it will be seen that your petitioner's case is not that of an individual who has owing to sheer indolence and neglect given up his studies and aspires for an Exemption. The circumstances under which your petitioner was obliged to discontinue his studies were not of his own creation. They were extremely painful alike to the petitioner and to his parents-when the Government was gracious enough to sanction the Exemption above referred to in the case of less deserving applicants of respectable families it is submitted that your Excellency's petitioner has stronger claims on the sympathetic consideration of Government for a similar concession being sanctioned in his case also. As regards his lineage your Excellency's petitioner begs to state that he is the great great grandson of Bakshi Muhammed Bahauddin Sahib^x Commander-in-Chief of the well known Hyder Ali's forces and of Hakim Muhammed Saeed Khan Physician in Chief of His Highness Nawab Azimuddaula Bahadur and grandson of Nawab Ghulam Ali Khan Bahadur brother of Nawab Saadatullah Khan Bahadur Ruler of Carnatic.

x Vide Genealogical tree enclosed.

Your Lordship's petitioner therefore respectfully requests that his humble application may receive favourable consideration at your Excellency's hands.

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the examination rules

FOR ORDERS

As to whether the exemption applied for should be granted. The Paymaster in forwarding the application says that he does so at the request of the Prince of Ancof, but himself makes no recommendation on behalf of the applicant. The usual endorsement may perhaps be given in this case, viz, that the application will be considered if the head of any department wishes to employ the applicant.
