Travelling Allowance.

Sanctioning, under article 278-A of the Civil Account Code, the payments of Rs. 174-12-0 and Rs. 124-14-0 as — to M.R.Ry. V. Nadamuni Mudaliyar and M.R.Ry. N. Deivasikhamani Mudaliyar, Chairmen of the Primary Examination Boards, North Arcot and Madura districts respectively.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From the Hon'ble Mr. G. H. STUART, M.A., Barrister-at-Law, Commissioner for Government Examinations, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated Madras, 24th August 1901, No. 639/3 D.

I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to sanction payment to M.R.Ry. V. Nadamuni Mudaliyar, Chairman of the Primary Examination Board, North Arcot district, and M.R.Ry. N. Deivasikhamani Mudaliyar, Chairman of the Primary Examination Board, Madura district, of the sums of Rs. 174-12-0 and Rs. 124-14-0 respectively, these being the travelling allowances which I recommend should be paid to them in the circumstances mentioned below:—

2. M.R.Ry. V. Nadamuni Mudaliyar, whilst on furlough as Sub-Assistant Inspector of Schools, Chittoor range, was in November 1899 appointed by Dr. Duncan Chairman of the Primary Examination Board, North Arcot district, when the examination at a few of the centres had already been conducted. He completed the examination at the remaining centres, and, continuing to be Chairman while on furlough, he conducted the examination at all the centres last year.

3. Being on furlough M.R.Ry. V. Nadamuni Mudaliyar could not draw the fixed travelling allowance of Rs. 25 per mensem to which he would have been entitled if he had been in active service at the time as a Sub-Assistant Inspector of Schools. He was consequently regarded as a non-official chairman for purposes of travelling allowance, and a travelling allowance bill for Rs. 200 was sent to him under rule 6 of the rules regulating the payment of remuneration to chairmen, etc., sanctioned in G.O., No. 790, Educational, dated 1st October 1895. The Accountant-General, however, having taken objection to the course followed, M.R.Ry. V. Nadamuni Mudaliyar had to refund the Rs. 200 drawn by him.

4. The case of M.R.Ry. N. Deivasikhamani Mudaliyar is similar to that of M.R.Ry. V. Nadamuni Mudaliyar. He was appointed Chairman of the Primary Examination Board, Madura district, while he was in active service as Assistant Inspector of Schools, Madura-Tinnevely division, but when he was granted furlough in his latter capacity he was allowed, as a special case, to retain the chairmanship. He thus conducted the Primary examination of 1900-1901 in the Madura district, but could not draw any travelling allowance in the Educational department.

5. The amounts to the payment of which sanction is now requested are the actual amounts to which these chairmen would be entitled in accordance with the rates prescribed in the Civil Service Regulations. The sum of Rs. 174-12-0 due to M.R.Ry. V. Nadamuni Mudaliyar is for the travelling performed by him in connection with the examination for two years—Rs. 75-12-0 for 1899-1900 and Rs. 99 for 1900-1901.

6. To avoid complications of this nature occurring again, I propose to make it a rule that no inspecting officer shall be appointed chairman when on furlough or allowed to retain office as chairman when he goes on leave.

ORDER—No. 538, Educational, dated 23rd September 1901.

The payments recommended by the Commissioner are sanctioned under article 278-A of the Civil Account Code.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 538, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 23RD SEPTEMBER 1901.

[SUBJECT.—Travelling Allowance to two Chairmen of Primary Examination Boards.]

From the Commissioner for Government Examinations, Madras, No. 639/3 D., dated 24th August 1901.

The Commissioner's letter should have apparently been submitted through the Accountant-General. It may now be sent to him u.o. for remarks.

Yes.

C. J. WEIR.
2-9-01.

To the Accountant-General u.o. for favour of remarks.

Article 1232 (iii) of the Civil Service Regulations does not admit of the grant of travelling allowance for a journey performed during leave of any kind, and the strict application of the provisions of this article would require the refusal of the request that has been made.

2. The Director of Public Instruction has explained the special circumstances of these cases and has stated that he proposes to issue instructions which will prevent the occurrence of such cases in future. In the two cases under consideration therefore the concession requested will not amount to the establishment of a new rule or practice but the granting of an exemption from the operation of a rule. In these circumstances and in consideration of the analogous case of Government officers attending local board meetings while on leave dealt with in G.O., No. 790 L. & M., dated 6th April 1891, and incorporated in the Local Fund, Public Works and Account and Audit rules with the approval of Government—vide G.O., No. 2932 L. & M., dated 13th December 1892, I would suggest that, if Government should consider that the concession asked for should be granted, the sanction of Government should be accorded under article 278-A of the Civil Account Code. There would be no audit objection to such a course being followed.
