SEPTEMBER.

Article 1159 of the Civil Service Regulations.

Sanctioning the exemption of Forest Ranger Monisse from the operation of — for the entire period of his halt at Benne in connection with railway sleeper operations, and stating that exemptions from the operation of that article will not be granted in future similar cases as they are properly met by the grant of a deputation allowance under article 98 of the Civil Service Regulations.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers:—

Reference from the Board of Revenue (Land Revenue), Forest No. 187, dated 17th June 1901.

Reference—No. 187, Forest, dated 17th June 1901.

In May 1900 Ranger Monisse, who was attached to the Ootacamund Range in the Nilgiri district, was deputed on special duty to Benne, which is outside the limits of his charge, in connection with railway sleeper operations and remained there continuously for five months from 19th May 1900 to 19th October 1900. The Conservator of Forests, Southern Circle, recommended that Ootacamund might be treated as the ranger's head-quarters during the period of his deputation and that the ranger might be exempted from the operation of section 1159, Civil Service Regulations, so as to enable him to draw travelling allowance for the whole period of his stay at Benne. The reasons urged in support of the application were that Benne was a remote and unhealthy locality and that the cost of living there was excessive. In its proceedings, Forest Mis. No. 164, dated 1st March 1901, the Board considered that the Conservator's recommendation did not fall within the scope of section 1159. The Conservator is, however, of opinion that the case can be brought under that section and refers to G.O., No. 1213, Financial, dated 4th November 1899, in which a similar exemption was granted to Messrs. Arbuthnot and Monisse for their halts at the same station.

2. If the time spent at Benne by the ranger in the present case had been shorter, as in the case quoted by the Conservator, the Board would not have hesitated in applying for the required sanction. It seems, however, hard that the ranger should be deprived of the allowance merely because he was obliged to halt at the station for a long period. On reconsideration therefore the Board is inclined to support the Conservator's recommendation and accordingly requests the sanction of Government for the exemption applied for as a special case.

No. F. 41/3123.

Forwarded. Government can, under article 1159 (b), Civil Service Regulations, sanction the exemption applied for if it is satisfied that the prolonged halt was necessary in the interests of the public service and that the officer was put to extra expense during the period of his halt, although no camp equipage was maintained.

ORDER—No. 754, Financial, dated 7th September 1901.

Sanctioned.

2. The Government considers, however, that cases such as the present are properly met by the grant of a deputation allowance under article 98 of the Civil Service Regulations. Exemptions from the operation of article 1159 will not be granted in future similar cases.
